Chapter 184

GETTING THE LOOT?

DAVID & GOLIATH

"There went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines named Goliath ... whose height was six cubits (from elbow to fingertip) and a span (hand span)..."

"And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel ...

"And David(s) ... sling was in his hand ... And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ...

"Then said David ... I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. ... And David ... took ... a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell on his face ... and when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled ...

"And the children of Israel ... spoiled their tents." I Sam 17:1-53

One is not allowed to spoil ones kinsmen, when captive, or when killed in battle, because one deals with kinsmen by kinsmen's laws,¹ but one must deal with strangers according to the stranger's own laws because they respect no other. Their law states; "To the victor belongs the spoil."

Today, the Israeli media proclaims that Arab land claimed by the Arabs for more than 1000 years is now Israeli by right of conquest. Arab cities, towns, stores, farms, and homes - with all their contents, now belong to the Zionists who spill the blood of Arab men, women and recently - especially children - whenever they consider it necessary to defend their spoil.

Allah, the god of the Arabs, in turn promises paradise and wealth to the followers of Islam who die to regain this land and spread the faith. The Arab who can take a spoil from the Israeli or Christian may keep it. If he fails and dies in the attempt, he wins Paradise. It is a win/win situation. It is the best offer that many an impoverished Arab living on subsistence fare in a forsaken desert refugee camp has ever had. He feels he has no choice.

Who is foolish enough to expect the Christian to not see, and not learn that what works for the Arab and the Jew will work for him. Sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander - especially when the stakes are high.

1 "He showed his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them." Ps 147:19- 20

The King

The Saxon lost his land when the king took 1/3 of it by confiscating the land of rebellious subjects and by daring God by dealing in the capital offense of usury.² Forbidden by Law to directly lend at interest to his own kind, he brought in strangers who were usury bankers to lend money to his own people and bring them into bankruptcy.³ He took half of what the strangers foreclosed and the banker took half. In 102 years the bankers owned 1/5 of all England. In 1290 the King banished his bankers and took all their foreclosed land for himself. The Saxon warrior became a serf on his own land which was now owned by a Lawless kinsman who was king.

The Church's Land

The king's chief competitor was the church. The church got 1/3 of the people's land by persuading the people to bequeath their land to the church upon their deaths in exchange for praying their souls out of purgatory. To keep the spoil the church had to forbid the Saxon to read the Law. The church burned people who did. The church owned 1/3 and king owned 1/3 of that which had belonged to the people.

2 "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

3 (1) "Can two walk together, except they be agreed." Amos 3:3, (2) "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) thou art snared." Pr. 6:1, (3) "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." 1 Ki 4:21

The Church & King Combine

The king grew envious of the church's spoil and deposed the head of the church making himself its head, thereby combining his own 1/3 of the land with the church's 1/3, which now allowed him to own 2/3s of the people's land. The king was now not only king and god's representative on earth, but he was the largest land owner. Almost everyone else was either a serf working on the king's estates or an overseer (nobleman) who saw to it that the work was done.

The king also forbade Saxons to read the Bible to keep them from learning that the king was transgressing God's monopoly Law by owning all this land.⁴ He too burned people for snooping around in the scriptures to discover things that they shouldn't discover. Wycliffe, who translated the Bible into English, was caught and burned by the king. Others were too. It is an historical fact that all of the early Bibles had to be printed by individuals without any ecclesiastical, royal, or public help, since the establishment of the day was united to keep the people from learning The Word.

The Geneva "Breeches" Bible, filled with the margin notes of the early reformers pointing out the king's and church's transgressions in detail, was smuggled into the land. It was dangerous, divisive, and the king punished any who bought it. But that did not stop it. It was bought and carefully hidden in every household.

To combat this "pernicious merchandise" he introduced a "Bishop's Bible" of his own which left out the reformer's

4 "Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, and they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth." Isaiah 4:8

margin notes. The Bishop's Bible was ignored. The Geneva Bible still reigned supreme. The next attempt was a revision of the Bishop's Bible called the King James Bible. This time, it worked. The Geneva Bible was made hard to get and the King James version easy, so the King's "authorized" version became the new standard. For individuals to own it instead of the Geneva Bible kept the king's equivalent of the FBI and IRS off one's back, and it deprived the people of the reformer's notes which was upsetting to the establishment. People forget, the KJ version was introduced to replace the Geneva Bible and help keep the Saxon from getting excited about "his rights" and to stay in his place.

Reading the Bible at all was the Saxon's first obstacle. Which Bible to read was the next. While the powerful king and his subjects argued, a thief entered by the side door and stole the prize. What prize? The great spoil that made Bible suppression necessary - the king's 2/3s of England's land.

The Banker's Land

The king had used and then banished the bankers after first stripping them of the property they had looted by usury banking. The bankers had no love for the king but they did for his immense wealth.

The current king forbade the bankers' return. He didn't need another competitor for his land, so, the bankers hired a pretender to the king's throne and hired armies so that he could take the throne. The old king toppled, his overseer-nobles and loyal serf yeomen were banished to America where they could do little harm in the wilderness, and the new banker's king took over and ruled for his masters. Now, the bankers had both the king's land and the land of the banished refugees.

The new king looked English, spoke English, and acted English, so he was accepted. But, he too was just a hired overseer. The bankers now owned and controlled Britain. The king was their royal spokesman.

Gathering Still More Spoil

In 1780, 173 years after America's settlement, and 100 years after both the supporters and enemies of the old king had been banished to America, the first usury bank was established in America. Unopposed, the system rapidly spread like a cancer. In a short while its operators took America's land and also control of the media. "True information and knowledge is the key to successful democratic rule." Media control controls men's thoughts, and this automatically controls his political apparatus.

A great war was promoted to dispossess wholesale landowner holdouts in the South. Former freemen were moved to town to work for one of the many banker owned or controlled industries. Other establishment wars dispossessed other Saxons in other lands. They, too, lost their land and moved to town. The landless Saxon was now on the establishment's payroll and must behave if he were to eat.

What A Saxon Today Endures

Matters have progressed as the ancient sages predicted. All Saxons now hold their hats in their hand. Many are in rags. Their foreclosed houses are bundled together and sold in lots by the FHA. A check of the campgrounds this winter will uncover descendants of Saxon sea-rovers sleeping in cars with their families.

To gain cheap labor and reliable voters the establishment floods the land with still more strangers. The Saxon, who cannot afford to send his children to a safe school or live in a safe neighborhood, is still judged rich enough to pay tribute to support these aliens. All the while the masters and their overseers flaunt their wealth on every hand. The Saxon loses his modest home while great homes and buildings are built with usury money. In Virginia, money barons live on thousands of lush bluegrass acres while former bankrupted owners till the soil for them, mow the grass, and tend their herds of sheep.

The Saxon Spur

To the onlooker, all seems hopeless but for one thing. The masters' greed has overdone it. He has it all. He has the church's land, the king's land, and the people's land - and still he doesn't have enough. He must grasp the last penny. He now finds he can make greater profit and gather even greater wealth with lower cost by firing Saxon workers and moving the industries that employed him to other lands. Entire Western industries are leaving. There are educated and skilled Saxons who now feel fortunate to find janitorial jobs to support their families. One may meet an electronics engineer with a Ph.D mopping floors at an airport. There is nothing else for him - almost.

The Saxon's Example

The Saxon sees! If the god of the Jews can approve of their invading another's land, and keeping it in the face of world opinion: if they can shoot down Arab women and children and stoutly maintain that it is their god given right to do so: If they can go to foreign countries and kidnap those whom they claim have harmed them, try, confiscate, and execute them: if they can flaunt Christian Law in the Christian nations in which they live and trade: if they can order their agents in foreign lands to send them reparations from those nations, and;

If Allah can tell Arabs to kill their own people who fraternize with Israelis, if he promises them paradise and spoil for resisting the infidel; does the Christian God promise the Saxon less?

How long can one expect it to take before six men at a time gather at brass altars with drawn weapons?

"Cause them that have charge ... to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon ... six men come ... and one man . . . with a writer's inkhorn at his side: and they went in and stood beside the brazen altar ... And to the others he said ... Go ye ... and smite: ... and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men (elders) which were before the house." Ezech 9:1- 6⁵

Does one actually expect an impoverished Saxon to pass by and look over the iron fence at Goliath living unpunished in his mansion, one who is known to have committed capital crimes against God, and yet securely lives on Saxon land and feasts on Saxon wealth? Unpunished crimes are the thing that the Word says brings God's curse on all the people

5 No. 16:37-40, No. 18:6-7, No 18:1-7, Ex 30:25-33, Lev. 22:10, No 1:51. (1) "Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood." Jer 48:10, (2) "If ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I will bring a sword upon you. Lev 26:14-35, (3) "He said unto them ... he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36, (4) "But if ye will not ... do all these commandments ... ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it ... they that hate you shall reign over you ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children ... and make you few in number ... I will bring a sword upon you ... I will send the pestilence among you; ... I will ... cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols ... And I will make your cities waste ... And I will bring the land into desolation." Lev 26:14-35 of the land - the Saxon included.⁷ Will not he believe the Word when it says that the removal of the guilty will remove God's curse?⁸ Will not the son of Isaac ask why David should pull the plow while David has a sling and a rock? Will not Goliath tell David where the wealth is hidden with a sword pressed to his throat? Do not Goliath's chariots transport wealth daily on the byways and his counting houses hold vast sums? Does not this wealth mount beyond measure to the sky?

To hungry abused men the prey seems so vulnerable, especially men whose Viking grandfathers made their living by desperate ventures.

'Til now, all that has kept David's descendants from climbing the iron fence and spoiling Goliath are Bible stories told by establishment tax-exempt priests who are made tax-exempt for telling the stories. They say that God's Law has been done away. Then, hunger pangs strike and the Saxon reads the Word himself. What he sees are not the words of Goliath's priests.

A fool can see that Goliath is king. His horsemen gallop into the countryside shouting Park Avenue slogans and publish new proclamations on every tree. Instant obedience is required. A lone cry of defiance immediately attracts troops of armored, warlike minions who quickly liquidate the rebel. His overseer-governors, and overseer-judges are

7 "Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. 1 Ki 20:42

8 "Then up stood up Phineas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore." Ps 106:29-31 busy, the gavels rise and fall, the prisons are full. The overseers speak for their master and their word is law.

The Saxon now finds himself in the same place that the Jew and the Arab find themselves. The god of the Jews tells them that they are justified. The god of the Arabs tells them that they are justified. The God of the Saxon tells him that he is justified.

The people's land that was taken and combined into the king's land and the church's land, is now combined into the bankers' land. All the jealousy, fear, hate, anguish, and frustration that in the past was directed against the king and the church now goes with those who possess this monopoly.

With history to guide, and the present example of both Jew and Arab to instruct, it is possible to predict that the following will inevitably come to pass as sure as day follows night:

The Saxon Dawn

The rivers of Tidewater Virginia are immense. Near Hoskins Creek, seventy miles from the bay, the Rappahannock River is a mile and a half wide. Lower, it is seven miles wide and hard to see across. This is the river on whose banks my forefathers have lived for ten generations. As mountains are to some - this great river is to my people. As a young man, I launched a sailboat in the dead of night out into this river where great men-of-war once sailed. I followed their bearings down the river. The elements caught my sailboat, the ebbing tide rushed strongly in the channel, and the wind from starboard stung my face. By dawn I had sailed into the great Chesapeake. It was glorious. I had sailed the very waters the ironclads had sailed, the tall masted men-of-war, ship's longboats and canoes. For a moment I felt a part of history. In mind's eye I passed on through the great Hampton Roads with its scores of ships lying at anchor, and sailed on into the Atlantic mist.

Sometimes, very early in the morning before the sun rises, the fog hangs low on the ocean. The water is glassy, silent. Not a sound nor a ripple. The familiar sound of the buoy bell and gull are gone. A fog envelopes everything. All is still.

The sailboat had become a grandfather's narrow dragon-ship - inching soundlessly through the damp fog. Touching the sand bottom forty feet from the beach it quietly ground to a stop. Virginia's mornings can be cold when the fog is heavy. One can touch bottom and hardly see the shore.

Quietly, so as not to make a sound, a leg reaches over the gunnel and sinks into the cold water. The water sends an electric shock through the body. The other leg follows, and both sink into the cold black water. It comes to the thighs, and then to the belt. Standing on tiptoes on the sandy bottom to keep the cold water from rising higher only delays the inevitable. One wishes to be somewhere else - anywhere else. But hunger is master here.

Reaching back into the boat the helmet is cold, wet, and heavy. The great round shield from the side of the boat is next. It too is cold and wet with condensation.

Then, reaching back into the boat the Saxon lifts his ax, balances it, and, taking a deep breath starts to wade to shore. It is time to go to work to feed himself and his family. There is much wrong in the land that must be righted, the table is spread, and the pay is good.

The former engineer looks at his watch, rests his mop against the wall and goes to the restroom. A short while later he emerges in a three piece suit and a briefcase. He too is going to work.⁹

Both believe as their crusader fathers believed before them -

"God wills it!"

THE KING IS DEAD LONG LIVE THE KING!

On November 30, 1989, Alfred Herrhausen, 59, the powerful chairman of West Germany's largest bank, the Deutsche Bank, died in an explosion in an affluent Frankfurt suburb.

The Wall Street Journal in its main article on Dec. 1st said said, "Mr. Herrhausen, the architect of the Deutsche Bank's recent expansion in Europe, Asia and the U.S., was ... considered more powerful than his peers in any other country." It went on to say that he "was the personal economic adviser to W. German Chancellor Helmut Kohl," and "Robert Hormats, vice- chairman of Goldman Sachs International, said he was due to have dinner with the 59-year-old Mr. Herrhausen on Monday night in New York." ... "The impact of his assassination is no less than that of a European head of State.' says Mr. Hormats ... 'If there was a voice in Europe that was listened to, it was his.'"

9 (1) "They shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God." Eze 39:10, (2) "Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold." Nahum 2:9, (3) "They shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab." Isa 11:14, (4) "All the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves." De 3:7

Herrhausen, completely unknown to the man on the street, was a household name within the ruling clique. World rulers ruling behind the scenes are always unknown until they die. Otherwise, their rule would not be from behind the scenes. His importance was spotlighted by 60 column inches in the Wall Street Journal. War declarations and the deaths of kings and national rulers seldom receive that much press. TV and radio announcements continued every 15 minutes announcing his passing. Parades were held in Germany in his memory.

The one who was dead was very obviously a king.

The first story appearing immediately after his death was that a simple bicyclist with an attached bazooka rocket allowed the escorting car of bodyguards to pass then pointed his bike at Herrhausen's bullet proof car and fired. The missile hit the door next to the banker, piercing the armor, and killed him instantly while sparing his driver.

However it was done, it may be assumed that the group responsible in selecting this important but unknown target from a mass of faceless unknowns is very well informed, both as to their target's station in this world and his movements.

Political violence in Western European countries is almost always blamed on Red Brigades. To do otherwise would be to admit discontent.

It is quite plausible that SOME violent acts are committed by individuals who adhere to communists ideology, but to credit communist violence against Western international bankers to Red Brigades, as is presently being done - stretches credibility. If the communists ever attacked their creator and sugar daddy, the bankers would stop their grants, loans, subsidized grain shipments, new steel mills, chemical plants, auto plants, electronics, computers, the latest weapons, fighter planes, space shuttles, etc. in a minute, and communism would die. No one bites the hand that feeds them. These Red Brigades appear to be routinely given credit for acts that would be embarrassing if attributed to others.

Note the other targets the media improbably attributes to the "Red Brigades":

- July 1977 - Juergen Ponto, chief executive officer of the Dresdner Bank, shot by three assailants;

September 1977 - Hanns-Martin Schleyer, principal spokesman of an association of high ranking corporate leaders - kidnaped and later killed;

- February 1985 - Arms industry executive Ernst Zimmermann - shot.

July 1986 - Siemens executive Karl Heinz Beckurts - killed by a bomb.

October 1986 - Gerold von Braunmuehl, Senior W. German diplomat - shot.

- Now, November 1989 - Alfred Herrhausen, chief executive officer of W. Germany's largest bank - killed probably by rocket.

It could be that there is a group made up of those who do not look with favor on the last dozen or so wars with their tens of millions of dead, each financed by the international usury- bankers:¹⁰ It may be that some have realized that all financing, for right wing and left wing causes, must come from this group. It can come from nowhere else. It may be that such a group is bypassing the smaller fry street activists, politicians, judges, and establishment spokesmen to hit what they consider the soulless monsters responsible - usury-banking, and will not stop their crusade as long as a single one of them lives or any of the group they have chosen for their target lives.

¹⁰ "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

We shall doubtless hear more of these nameless ones whose actions speak louder than their words and who are wreaking such havoc in the ranks of the world's rulers.

Federal Judge Assassinated

The bombing incidents reached front page with the arrival of the 4th bomb. One of the deceased was 11th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Robert S. Vance, known as a militant anti-White integrationist. He was widely hailed as being instrumental in helping Blacks to gain control of Alabama's Democratic Party. The establishment is shocked by his sudden demise and expressions of outrage and sympathy were made by the governor and others. The media speculates that drug lords are to blame.

Also killed by a bomb was a Black integrationist lawyer. Two other bombs were disarmed. Another judge in Maryland was badly wounded by a bomb.

NOTE: This regrettable outbreak of violence was predictable. American citizens have lost control of the ballot to special interest groups, are often directly ruled by Federal judges (who, have not been held accountable for their acts), are unmercifully taxed, and when criminally assaulted on the streets their attackers are often slapped on the wrist and released. From this misrule there has been way to appeal.

It can be further predicted with reasonable certainty, that if accountability is not soon forthcoming, that the people themselves will increasingly hold their rulers responsible for their acts, and that small flames will continue to break out one at a time until they can't be stamped out. Then the conflagration will sweep all - as it did before.

JAPANESE WHITE SLAVERY

Rev. Ed Martin is a prison evangelist. He was a missionary to Japan for 15 years and has an intimate knowledge of Japan and its people. He is alarmed by the American media routinely telling Americans that the oriental thinks as Americans do, and consequently they are allowed to get away with things that absolutely violate our Christian religion and Laws. He writes Hope Aglow Ministries Newsletter, P.O. Box 3057, Lynchburg, Virginia 24503-0057.

"My great concern at the moment is the Japanese shanghaiing pretty White American girls, taking them to Japan under the illusion of their becoming movie stars, and once there, selling them to the highest bidder. Some are sold into "White slavery", and some into the porno industry.

"The American girl brings a high price in Japan. They don't speak the Japanese language, so they are virtual slaves of the Japanese men who use them, sell and trade them.

"We go to great lengths to get our hostages out of Lebanon, but about these, our women, who are spirited away by the Japanese and sold as chattel, nothing is done.

"These girls are our flesh and blood, our treasured possessions, naive, unsuspecting - trying to get ahead in life. At the end of the plane ride they arrive among a strange people speaking a strange language and are totally disoriented. The joy ride is over and stark reality awaits. Their destiny is sealed.

YOUR CLIPPINGS

Several hundred clippings have arrived this month from readers from all over the country. Some comment on local economic matters that in time may affect the whole country, but nine out of ten pertain to the national crime wave - or crime war. The clippings relate a few of the mind boggling numbers of crimes committed against Whites. There were 1,400,213 violent crimes committed by non-Whites against Whites in 1987. The statistics are carried in a Department of Justice publication Criminal Victimization in the U.S., 1987, and are commented on by Instauration, p. 6, December 1989.

The magnitude of this war can be measured against the Vietnam War which claimed 25,078 dead and wounded per year for as long as the war lasted. In the present race war 26,923 Whites per WEEK are killed or wounded by non-Whites. Whites don't react because the media fights for the criminals by censoring their race from the reports.

Pat Buchanan recently announced that non-White neighborhoods are 35 times more unlawful than White neighborhoods. Individual non- Whites can be found who are more lawful than Whites. Statistics, however, point out that the average non-White may be 35 times more prone to lawlessness than a White.

- ALABAMA - Montgomery: Alabama's Black NAACP president Thomas Reed intends to retain his post even though serving a four-year sentence for bribery. Reed was found guilty of accepting $10,000 to help obtain an early parole for a convicted murderer, Anthony Chesser.

- Montgomery: Morris Dees, executive director of the Southern Poverty Law Center which built a $700,000 civil Like start some mini-Iran or spread some filthy disease."

•MINNESOTA - Minneapolis police report that North Central Bible College freshman was severely beaten by a Black gang. There have been at least 5 recent attacks on White males by Black gangs.

•NORTH CAROLINA Greensboro; Integrationists gather to honor five anti-White communists killed when they opened fire on a pro-White cavalcade. Seven other reds were wounded in the melee. The one leading the pro-White cavalcade was later discovered to be an undercover agent for the FBI. Six Whites were charged with murder and tried three times. Each time juries found them innocent. Persistence pays, and finally in June 1985, a federal jury found the city of Greensboro, two police officers, a federal informant, and 5 White defendants liable in the deaths.

•OREGON The militant pro-integration Southern Poverty Law Center in Montgomery, Ala. and the ADL have joined forces to file suit against a group led by Tom Metzger who they contend contributed to the death of a non-White. This same tactic was successfully used by this same team in Georgia where a pro-White group was sued in Federal court and fined $7 million. Members of the convicted group had their property and wages attached by the court to satisfy the judgment resulting in a long term master/slave relationship with the courts.

•OKLAHOMA - Lin Davis, 23, was convicted in federal court of 6 counts of sending threatening letters to 2 federal judges - Penalty: 100 years in prison, $500,000 fine. (Overkill?)

•PENNSYLVANIA - Philadelphia - A conservative organization was refused the use of public property to hold a rally in Millville, Cumberland County. They asked the ACLU to help them file suit. Other conservative organizations complain that co- operation with left wing organizations like the ACLU allows them to gain information on conservative operations and is counter- productive.

•TEXAS - Dallas; Five Whites were indicted by a Federal grand jury for attacks on Black and Hispanic people.

•MIDDLE EAST & EUROPE - Iran - Nine hundred suspected drug smugglers face the gallows. One thousand have already been executed. •Palestine - Irritated by militant Arabs killing 154 Arabs who collaborated with the Israelis, an Israeli strike force disguised as Arabs stormed a barber-shop suspected of being a possible rebel hangout and killed four of its occupants. This unprovoked attack caused the entire Arab neighborhood to protest providing an excuse for the Israelis to shoot four more. The Israelis estimate that 500 Arab anti- collaborator squads have been identified.

LATIN AMERICA - Colombia - A guerrilla leader, alarmed over government plants in his organization, shot 109 of his 200 man force. Tried by fellow guerrillas, he was removed from command and exiled to the USSR. Panama - U.S. refuses to recognize Panama as an independent state and invades to bring its president before a drug-crimes tribunal.

UNFILTERED NEWS

HEPATITIS: The NY Times of Nov. 9, 1989, p. B- 22, discloses that up to 90% of all SE Asians are hepatitis carriers, and their children are responsible for most of the disease's transmission in schools and day-care centers. The hepatitis virus is spread by biting or scratching. Interestingly, a recent AIDS journal reported that all AIDS patients have hepatitis B. The connection will be interesting when it is at last revealed.

Chapter 185

4-Year Election Cycle

When I worked on Wall Street 30 years ago everyone knew about the 4-Year Election Cycle, but no one spoke of it - it was a trade secret.

This publication was the first to show it in graphic form for all to see.

In short - the monetary authorities cooperate to get the White House incumbent elected. This is done by opening the money spigots and forcing the stock market higher before election. This makes the electorate happy and not as likely to vote the usury system out of office.

When the election is over and the voters have had a chance to let off steam, the money is shut off to prevent inflation and the stock market collapses. Then it starts all over again. This has been going on for a long long time.

The chart above shows the stock market from 1960 to the present. The black bars represent the usual 4-year crash after election. According to conventional wisdom, since the presidential election took place last year, the stock market should collapse this year.

The chart above shows the stock market from the 1982 4-year bottom to the present. Note that the 1986 4-year bottom looks out of place. At that time the Federal Reserve held the money throttle wide open. They kept lowering the prime lending rate to encourage people to borrow money into existence. With all that money (M1) flowing into the stock market it couldn't crash if it wanted to. So, instead of crashing according to the 1986 historical timetable as so many expected - the stock market continued its climb on into 1987.

In early 1987, the Fed suddenly threw on the brakes. They forced bank prime lending rates (Prime) higher to stop people from borrowing money into existence (M1). In May 1987, the M1 growth rate plunged, but the stock market continued on up under a two year head of steam. It wasn't until August that it peaked at 2809 and then it too crashed. But it crashed in 1987 instead of 1986 as expected.

As much as I hate to say it - the 1987 Crash was actually the 1986 crash - at least for the purposes of the 4-Year Election Cycle chart it was.

1990 DOLLAR

One of the reasons the economy booms is because the establishment lowers the dollar exchange rate to underprice U.S. competitors.

In 1984-85 business was still good because goods were still being shipped that had been ordered when the dollar was low. But in 1984-85 the dollar was very high (see above) and less foreign orders were being written. Since there is a 12 - 36 month delay in filling orders, the impact of a high dollar was just felt last year and now.

The dollar has now been pegged at its present low rate (see 1988-1989). This means that American manufacturers can underprice foreign competition. Shipments and profits should start 12 to 24 months later - this means:

STARTING ABOUT NOW!

YOUR CLIPPINGS

Europe - Britain: • Three million Hong Kong Chinese are eligible for British passports. • Britain's first commercial Asian radio station was launched in November carrying a program which helps young men and women to find mates. • Britain's 1991 census will include race for the first time. • A prayer at a recent Thanksgiving ecumenical service held in London to celebrate toleration stated: "Blessed art thou, Oh Lord, for giving us a discerning heart ... Through Jesus Christ ... and through Mohammed ..."

NORTH AMERICA - United States - • Gordon Muir in the Washington Times said. "Gonorrhea has become the most common reportable disease in school-age children, surpassing chicken pox, measles, mumps and rubella combined." • The Japanese paid $3.4 billion for Columbia Pictures and now Rockefeller Center has been bought for $846 million by Mitsubishi Real Estate Company. • An American Indian group in Warsaw, Missouri uses sophisticated genetics testing procedures to verify Indian descent. The Indian Council says that DNA testing makes possible the determination of Indian blood and to almost the exact percent. It can even indicate tribal heritage. The test allows people to trace their background to qualify for government or tribal programs. The Missouri Ruralist 9/89. (ED: It is believed that this blood testing ability has long been available but suppressed for political reasons to integrate disease carrying segments into our society that Western science would otherwise exclude.) • Detroit - Since 1950 the population of Detroit has dropped from 1.8 million to just 1 million. Three thousand buildings were torn down in the first half of 1989, while 12,000 more remain to be toppled. • Denver has only about 500 energy related industries down from 1800 in 1980. In places it is a ghost town. • From The Mountain recommends that the K return to being a submarine from trying to be a battleship.

Canada - • Indian Sikhs have demanded the right to wear turbans in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Now, the American Indian members want to wear long braided hair. • Gypsy "refugees" have been apprehended by Toronto and Montreal police with more than $1 million in stolen goods. They all are officially "refugees" and collect welfare. Panama - Noriega, deposed president of Panama, was CIA-trained and on their payroll, and for a long time U.S. backed. ED: Much of this world's mess has been created by those who rule the U.S..

MID-EAST - Afghanistan - • The USSR continues to pour $200 million a month worth of supplies to support their puppet regime. In contrast, the U.S. has cut off the rebels. The Afghan rebels fought for many years with almost no U.S. help. Only recently has the U.S. sent cosmetic aid which allows them to say that they aided the anti-communists. Establishment rulers of the U.S. do not help countries from falling to communism. Communists are establishment agents who confiscate private property to hold for their masters.

ORIENT - Philippines: • Army rebels are demanding that the Roman Catholic Church stop intervening in politics. The attempt by the RC Church to reclaim the 1/3 of the land confiscated by past governments has been a destabilizing influence on governments as they back any contending political party who will promise its return. • China is short of wheat.

UNFILTERED NEWS

NORIEGA is a scumbag - agreed. But, the US invaded a sovereign nation, removed its president in chains, threw him into a dungeon and put a puppet president in his place. The most recent comparable action was 2,000 years ago in the Roman Empire.

The world is warned: No nation or individual, whether England, Canada, or Japan, stands immune from the same treatment. The law governing such things is now trashed. The US now has no legal protest if foreign agents come to the US and kidnap US citizens for trial overseas. This Noriega thing is the law of the jungle. Our government is branded Lawless before the world - and the world is very much aware of it. As individuals, we had better be aware of it too.

HARASSING PHONE CALLS. A friend has received harrasing phone calls. She complained to the phone company. They said that by November there would be a device for sale for $100 which instantly records a caller's phone number after only one ring, and that harassing phone calls should be a thing of the past before the year is out.phone calls;harassing

THE VIRGINIA TAXPAYERS Association called for an investigation in Panama of bank records that would expose the heavy Panama-U.S. drug trade. "We will never get such a golden opportunity to seize a rich quantity of incriminating evidence as is available now from these banks." VTA, Box 45, Roseland, VA 22967

ED: What are the odds that the U.S. government will muscle the banks that rule them?

A FEDERAL JUDGE in Pennsylvania blocked the state's new abortion law from taking effect. The law requires that women notify their husbands and wait 24 hours before an abortion. This judicial decree will be interpreted by some as his license to murder. As events have shown, judges who persist in anti-social behavior must accept assassination as an occupational hazard.

CHINESE FIGHTERS: The Washington Post of 10/29/89 disclosed that Chinese military officers have returned to work with the US on joint Project Peach Pearl, a $500 million program to upgrade Chinese F-8 fighter planes.

ED: Just what we need - upgraded Chinese fighters.¹

FOOD: A recent phone call to an elevator operator in the Midwest revealed that grain bins there are empty. Food prices are now rising. This may indicate the future availability of food for the American public from food storage that was heavily tapped this year for shipments to the USSR and elsewhere.

¹ (1) "He showed his word ... his statutes and his Judgements unto Israel. He hath not delt so with any nation ... they have not known thee." Ps 147:19,20. (2) "Jesus ... commanded them, saying, Go ye not into the way of the gentiles." Math 10:5

LETTERS

"Dear Dick: The announcer on Radio Moscow stated that the rivers in the USSR are so low that barges and ships cannot move. They are importing more US grain than ever before and it is supposed to reach there in January. The Soviets are more dependent on river transport than we are and if they can't move that grain it could spoil and cause famine in Russia next year." C. W. - Ohio

"Dear Dick: Q1: It was Tyndale who was burned - not Wycliffe!

Q2: Do you think the judge bombings are Phineas acts?

Franklin Sanders, The Moneychanger, PO Box 341753, Memphis Tennessee

ED: A1: I stand corrected. I was writing faster than I was thinking.

A2: The doubt comes from notification being sent to establishment media instead of the anti-establishment alternate media. News that would hurt the establishment is never reported in their media unless they are forced to print it (ie. long-time Stalin murders cover-up, Solzhenitsyn blackout, Eisenhower's death camps, Canada's censorship, the Leuter Report, the Farrison assault, the Zundel trials, Israeli censorship of the never ending Palestinian massacre, ANC communist origins, criminal's race, poisoned drinking water given political prisoners at Marion prison, etc.).

We never would have known the true story of Jesse James if he hadn't sent his press releases to a friendly editor who gave it friendly treatment. Other un-James-like stories in scores of establishment books and hundreds of stories are rank establishment propaganda.

The recent death of the powerful German usurer speaks for itself and needs no by-line. "He that hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ez 18:8-13.

He sure did.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: I am a police officer. For your information there is an extremely secretive private national intelligence agency that is not answerable to any public authority. Its name, The Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit. It links the intelligence squads of almost every major police force in the US and Canada." Z. C. - California

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: What about Virginia electing a Black for governor? G. W. - Kentucky

ED: All major candidates in America are media chosen. The media made the Black look good and the White bad. Most Christians stayed home and the Blacks block-voted. All needed for a Christian win was to have fliers and posters with these two quotes: "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15, and "Their governor shall precede from the midst of them." Jer 30:21.

"Calling on the Lord" is the only thing Christians haven't tried. Give people a choice, stand aside, and let doubters argue with God.

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: What exactly is communism?" G. R. - North Carolina

ED: "Communism" - a corporate raid - a takeover operation.

Those who financed the French Revolution cleaned up. They gained the 1/3 of the lands of the king, nobles, and the 1/3 owned by the church - 2/3s of the nation. The establishment, to keep the people's eyes off the big prize, encouraged them to kill each other.

The Russian "communist" Revolution gained the 1/3 owned by the Tzar and nobles, the 1/3 owned by the church, plus, a bonus - the 1/3 owned by private individuals. The wealth of an entire nation with a land area worth tens of billions, was seized by "communist" agents and held for those who financed the take-over.

Gulags, firing squads, war crimes trials, and guillotines permanently separate owners from their property. The new owners aren't bothered with irate owners protesting the loss of stolen property. The media blames everything on the dead owners.

Later transfer of property held for the war promoters can be peaceful or nasty. The present transfer in Eastern Europe is peaceful. The one holdout was shot. The "bad" communists suddenly realized the error of their ways, in one month instantly become non-aggressive, friendly, democratic, up to here in "glasnost", and confess their secret sins rather than have them "exposed" at a later date. New owners, agents of the same old establishment, take over management and operation. They recondition and activate their newly acquired property, and money and prosperity start to flow again - with new permanent owners as the power behind the new "reform" government, who are mostly the old government with new titles.

The name "Communism" is the only thing that has faded. The game continues under other names. The Russian Revolution was a corporate raid that wasted 40,000,000 lives, mostly our people.

"Dear Dick: How are the international bankers involved with the recent Chinese fiasco?" O. W. - Wisconsin

ED: Chinese puppet leaders refused to turn their trust over to the financiers who put them in power. Napoleon did the same and look what happened to him. This is why Soviet divisions on the Chinese frontier have been increased from 30 to 165. The establishment gets what it pays for. The E. European communist dictator who held on to his power and position after he was told to step down was shot as an object lesson. Since Tiannamen Square, our establishment leaders are over there every day taking over property from the communist caretaker government. Even our president has multi-millions invested in China. Tiannamen Square reminded China that the establishment can bring about an internal revolution or bring the armed might of world against her. A single establishment marxist agent with a billion dollars to work with can bring about much change. I believe the Chinese have learned the lesson.

Chapter 186

THE UNHOLY TRINITY

Capitalism - Socialism - Communism

There are two basic economic systems - only two.

- 1 - Interest free systems, and
- 2 - Interest based systems.

The interest system is the forbidden one. To prevent people from using it, the Christian religion made it a capital crime.¹ The single exception was when the borrower was a stranger whom one wished to destroy.²

¹ "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

Why all the fuss? Simply, in time interest destroys its victim.

In 1782 the United States gained her independence. The usurers of the world flocked to lend her money. The US accepted a loan of 2 million gulden from Netherlands bankers.

A 1782 Netherlands Loan To The U.S. at 10%

1782	$2mil	1890	59,080
1790	4	1900	153,238
1800	11	1910	397,460
1810	29	1920	1,030,910
1820	75	1930	2,673,914
1830	194	1940	6,935,444
1840	503	1950	17,988,755
1850	1,305	1960	46,658,197
1860	3,386	1970	121,019,347
1870	8,782	1980	313,893,019
1880	22,778	1990	$814,157,651

Let us assume that the 2 million gulden equals $2 million dollars, and the loan was at 10%. Let us further assume that for reasons of state the loan was made quietly by executive agreement and only announced in 1990. Can you picture it?

"The U.S. owes the Netherlands $2 million dollars." U.S. Congressmen jostle each other to stand and proclaim, "a debt is a debt, and this debt like any other must be paid! The nation's honor is involved."

Someone then takes time to put $2 million at 10% times 208 years into a computer. The result: "The borrower is slave to the lender." The newly free United States got its freedom only to give it away again. What happened is that interest increased the debt. The U.S. no longer owes $2 million. She doesn't even owe a few hundred millions, not even billions or hundreds of billions; the U.S. now owes $814 trillion dollars! $814 trillion dollars is more than the entire world is worth - an impossible sum to pay because this much money doesn't exist on this earth. You may be sure that the lender had this in mind when making the loan. Since the U.S. can't pay she must make concessions. What concessions? That depends.

2 "Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury." Deu 23:20

This is usury at work. Whoever uses the system will in time enslave the one to whom he lends. This is why the Christian religion demands capital punishment for those who practice it.³

CAPITALISM is the system practiced by today's establishment. The word "capitalism" used to mean using capital (money) in business. Through the years it has taken on other meanings. Today it means usury-capital, monopoly, ruthlessness, callousness, wars, bloody foreclosures, rivers of blood, death, and destruction. The word "free-enterprise" has been coined to mean what the word "capitalism" used to mean.

3 To encourage borrowers to participate, a counterfeit Christian religion is financed by the usury-establishment to give it's OK. In exchange for tax exemption, plus perks for the priests, this establishment religion agrees that the Laws created by Jesus no longer exist, or if they exist, one need not obey them. Churches, of whatever denomination, which teach that God's Law is done away and man's statutes have replaced them, are by definition - "state churches." They are bought and paid for. The practicing priests are "state priests." Their god is a strange god not recognized by the Christians' God. The Christian God proclaims (1) "I am the Lord, I change not." Mal 3:6, (2) Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, & forever. Heb 13:8, (3) "The scripture cannot be broken." John 10:35.

The usury system, as we have seen, grows. It spreads like cancer. It is bound by legal contract and enforced by armies. It gathers all into its net. Unstopped, it devours everything. It is built into today's system. Inability to pay its impossible demands results in negotiating away freedoms in exchange for cancellation of usury-debt. Usury inevitably causes Roman type slavery where the few are master and all others slaves.

The Hardnosed Private Property Holdout

There are always hard nosed holdouts who will not sell, who will not bargain, and who will not borrow at usury. To get their property other measures are used.

The South African gold mines and farms required the Boer War, the plantations of the South and its international commodity trade required a War Between the States, the German commodities for manufactured products exchange-trade with the rest of the world by-passing usury banks required WW II. The remaining independent farms of America required high interest rates, tight money, low commodity prices, and SWAT teams. Independent American business required a 1929, and the Tzar's vast land holdings in Russia required 1918. These holdout problems were overcome one at a time by "utilizing proper planning, perseverance, and attention to detail." Other holdout problems were solved in other ways.

SOCIALISM is a neat system created by private Capitalism to get property not obtainable otherwise.

The Christian religion forbids monopolies. It's fine to be rich. Many of the patriarchs were rich, but monopolies are forbidden.⁴ Those who practice monopoly, whether king, church, or citizen, win the approbation of their God and the envy and hatred of those who are deprived of using the land and resources God gave to His people.⁴

This fact is well-known, and well-used by the establishment. They use the Christian Law against monopolies to deceive the people and to feather their own nests.

Municipalities used to own banks and public utilities. They were monopolies or near monopolies to be used by everyone, generating no profit, and designed to give needed inexpensive service. They were well run and did not fall under the monopoly prohibition since they were owned by municipality (or everyone). The establishment wanted to get these utilities to generate a large profit for themselves.

This was the procedure: the usury establishment owned the money system. With their unlimited funds they bought the media. With the media they publicized politicians they wanted elected to run the municipality. They blacked out those they did not want elected. These media-elected establishment politicians mismanaged the utilities to cause public discontent. The establishment media then demanded that these mismanaged industries be privatized. "Privatization" means to sell the badly run municipal utilities at a low price to thousands of public stockholders. While thousands of stockholders bought the stock, thereby avoiding the accusation of "monopoly," the multi-billionaires with unlimited funds bought controlling interest. These newly "privatized" utilities then became well-run, highly profitable, and exempt from media criticism overnight.

4 "The land ... is mine." Lev. 25:20

Example: In England and France there were private banks, large coal companies, steel companies, airlines, railroads, and independent media. The establishment media whipped up a campaign of voter discontent against them and by public demand they were taken from their "greedy" owners and "nationalized."

British and French socialist politicians ran these socialized or nationalized industries badly. The establishment media then demanded that these badly run socialized industries be "privatized." The public was first told that socialism worked, then they were told that socialism didn't work. The establishment ended up owning what it wanted in the first place - private property belonging to someone else that they were unwilling to sell.

Socialism is of the establishment, by the establishment, and for the establishment. Socialism works - for the establishment.

COMMUNISM: Communism is the violent face of socialism. Communist violence is almost the single distinguishing feature that separates it from socialism. This violence permanently separates property owners from their property. Years later there is no one left to file a claim to foul up ownership of property confiscated years ago.

Financed by the establishment, a communist revolt is careful to rest its basic claims on Lawful grounds to avoid the wrath of the faithful. The media attack a private monopoly and declare it to be a hateful oppressive enemy. To help destroy the forbidden monopoly many Christians participate. It is easy to whip up support to take a private monopoly to be later divided among the people. The trigger word is "monopoly."

After the private property has been taken and the owners disposed of, the managers of this confiscated property are the new kings and the formerly private property is the new kingdom. The only things held in common are the people who must accept what they are told by the establishment's media or face the gulag. Christian Laws are banned to make it difficult for Christ's followers to gather and work against them.

Just as with socialism, the commune is mis-managed and the establishment media demands that the common property be "privatized." This doesn't mean the return of the property to former owners. They are dead. Leases, grants, or stock are sold to "the people." Those with establishment backing have money and buy controlling interests. In time the big shareholders buy out the little shareholders and the company goes private. Look around you.⁵

Communism is just another tool in the establishment arsenal.

Conclusion

Today's usury-capitalism is an establishment monopoly. Its exemption from taxes is the pay religions that give their OK to ply the usury trade forbidden by God get.

They use the Christian monopoly prohibition to win Christian support to nationalize or socialize private monopolies. They then privatize these seized properties for themselves and grow richer.

5 I don't know who owns some of my ancestors land confiscated for taxes and sold to NY syndicates after the War Between The States. The buying companies have been taken private and issue no reports.

Socialism, communism, and capitalism are the faces of the establishment. All three are establishment agents. Through them the establishment finances revolt, peaceful in the West, bloody in the East; and privatizes the seized property so that they "join house to house ... lay field to field, till ... they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth." Isaiah 4:8

There are two kinds of economic systems - only two.

- Interest free systems, and
- Interest based systems.

"Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness." Jer 22:13.

AIDS UPDATE

In HONG KONG, a homosexual was given a life sentence for being homosexual.

HEPATITIS-B: The Center For Disease Control announced that Hepatitis-B is now spreading among non-drug using heterosexuals. This is a grave finding. Hepatitis-B and AIDS go together. It is believed that almost 100% of homosexuals carry hepatitis-B and almost 100% have AIDS. It may be that rampant hepatitis is a surface indication of rampant, but undiagnosed, AIDS. Hepatitis-B has an incubation period of 6 weeks to 6 months, while the AIDS incubation period can be three and one-half years or more before blood tests positive. "The increase in Hepatitis may portend something almost too horrible to contemplate." Hepatitis-B is NOT a sexually-transmitted disease and giving shots will probably compound the problem. If there is any hope of surviving this AIDS epidemic, one of the first things that must be done is to stop these inoculations. (Excerpted from The Cutting Edge, p. 4, 6/89, PO Box 1568, Clayton, GA 30525. $41/yr.)

HEPATITIS-B: "Records indicate that approximately 300 million people carry the hepatitis-B virus worldwide, compared with about 15 million carriers of the AIDS virus." INSIGHT, 12/18/89.

Up to 90% of all S.W. Asians are carriers of the highly infectious hepatitis which destroys the liver. S.E. Asian children are responsible for most of the transmission at schools and day-care centers. The hepatitis virus is spread by biting or scratching. New Eng. Journal Med. & N.Y. Times 11/9/89, p. B-22 Copied from APN, 2/90.

ZAIRE, the fountainhead of AIDS in Africa, reports zero cases to the World Health Organization. Actual conditions in Africa may be much worse than thought.

SWEDEN has established an AIDS colony on the Island of Adelsö. Patients will be confined in an escape-proof compound patrolled by armed guards. New Dimensions, AIDS Issue 1989, PO Box 811, Grants Pass, OR 97526.

ED: Two years ago we stated that in time it may be necessary for the entire city of New York to be converted into an AIDS colony. Barbed wire, guards, and dogs. Food, supplies, infected patients in - nothing out. Quarantine is necessary if others may be to live tomorrow.

TRANSFUSIONS: "A ... panel advised doctors yesterday to keep blood transfusions to a minimum ... It was the first government warning about transfusions based on a risk of contracting AIDS." NY News, 6/30/89.

"VENEREAL WARTS can be transmitted from towels and tanning tables ... Dr. Ralph Richart, Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in NY City, reported they have been able to recover the virus from doctors' instruments, gloves, and even plumes of smoke. The Mayo Clinic also reported 7 cases, all from tanning parlors. If you can get this venereal disease from tanning tables, you can get it from toilet seats. What else can you get from toilet seats?" The Cutting Edge, 8/89.

CONDOMS: "The US govt. has cut funding for a UCLA study on the effectiveness of condoms in preventing the spread of AIDS. Comments reporter Don Baier: 'This is practically an admission that the Koop campaign for condoms is a fraud.'" The Cutting Edge, 8/89.

INMATES: "AIDS is the No. 1 killer in the city jails. ...Some 56% of the 749 inmates who volunteered for the tests had positive results. Because that was not a true sampling, (the figure has been put) at 20% to 25%. Aside from the strain that AIDS puts on prison medical services ... inmates get extremely upset when they learn that an inmate in their section has the AIDS virus." Daily News, 6/8/89, p. 7.

76% OF INFECTED CHILDREN: "Health Secretary Louis Sullivan said ... the government and local communities must do a better job targeting AIDS prevention messages to minorities ... the secretary ... noted that the disease is taking a disproportionate toll on minorities: Blacks, who make up 12% of the US population, represent 26% of adult AIDS cases in the US and 53% of pediatric cases. Hispanics, who make up 7% of the nation's population, represent 15% of adult cases and 23% of pediatric cases." Cincinnati Inquirer, 8/5/89.

ED: Integrationist "outLaws" themselves may be found to be public enemy #1. They could cause your, or your child's, execution from the plague.

A male engineer with no AIDS symptoms traveled through Belgium having sex with professional, middle-class women. Out of 17 sexual contacts, 10 were infected.

There is an 8 times greater chance of being infected if one lives in the household of a person with AIDS. In one study in Africa, 39% of the infected children had mothers whose blood test did not show the AIDS virus.

London - Mr. Ian Charleson, the actor who starred in the film "Chariots of Fire" as the runner who would not run on Sunday - died of AIDS.

Oprah Winfrey's half brother Jeffrey Lee, 29, died of AIDS.

Florida's Southwest AIDS support group's president advised "carriers to avoid answering or to lie when questioned about infection by dentists, paramedics, and sometimes even doctors." Sarasota Herald-Tribune, Feb. 9, 1990.

Chapter 187

THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES

Once upon a time there was a wicked king who was hated by his subjects.

This king was the latest in a long line of kings, each more wicked than the one before. He had killed or defeated all the other kings and taken their money, castles, and lands, and had made slaves of them so that they had to work for him. He had also killed many of their peoples to teach them a lesson, and had taken their farms, too.

After taking their farms and businesses, he built great cities so his conquered subjects could come and live close to the evil king's factories and businesses where he wanted them to work.

In these new cities the people had to "buy" houses from the king, houses which always returned to the king every seven years. The king then "re-sold" the same house to someone else for seven more years.¹ He told his subjects who had lost their homes that they had to buy new ones again and again to be part of the "dream", but when they had almost paid for them and times were hard, the king raised taxes so that they could not pay and their houses returned once more to the king.

There were a few who managed to save and pay for their homes so that they owned them. The evil king laughed, and rubbed his hands gleefully as he moved someone next door to them that they did not like so they would have to move and buy another house with money from the king's bank. The king was very wicked and very very greedy.

King Midas' Touch

The king had three great champions who fought for him. The first champion was King Midas. He made the new king rich by using a secret way to make money that was very old and very bad. It was so bad that all the people had been told never to use it. This secret made everything the king touched turn into gold.

The secret was really very simple. A poor man who needed money was persuaded to borrow from the king. The loan appeared simple and honest, but it was not.

The king agreed to lend £10 to buy a house if the borrower repaid £11, and also agreed to give the king his house if he did not pay. The borrower did not know that the king could make money scarce by simply raising interest rates and making people pay more into his banks so that there would be less for everyone else.

In this way, when time came to pay the loan the borrower could not get £11 because the king had left only £10 still in circulation. When he could not pay he lost his house, or his little business, and the evil king got richer and richer. This 10 for 11 thing so angered God, whose land it really was, that he condemned the evil king to death.² The king knew that God had done this but he slyly paid greedy preachers who pretended to work for God to work for him instead, and not to tell the people that God was mad at him. He did not give them gold coins for doing this. If he had, everyone would see and become angry. He paid them instead by freeing them from taxes that everyone else had to pay. The greedy preachers loved this and told the people to obey everything the evil ruler said.

Goliath - The Enforcer

There were always some people who followed the good King who ruled in the good old days and still obeyed his Laws. These people did not honor the wicked new king. This made the new king angry and afraid. He sent spies into the countryside to discover these people who followed the old Laws, and when they were found he brought them before his judges and put them in jail. Sometimes a farmer would quote the law of the old ruler "The land shall not be sold

2 "He that hath ... given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ez 18:8-13

forever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23, and would not leave his land. When this would happen he would tell one of his sheriffs to go and shoot him, and the sheriff would.

If some of the people fought back, the king would send a great many men who would go and shoot them, and burn them up with fire.³ This was done to make everyone afraid, and it did. It made them be quiet and pay their taxes, too.

The Emperor's Clothes Make The Man

The emperor hurt people and did bad things, and the people held their nose when they saw him. He used perfume, but the people still said bad things about him and still held their noses. So, the emperor decided to do something about it. Instead of taking a bath and dressing in nice clean clothes he used a magic talking suit that he had taken from some people he had conquered and that was hanging in his closet.

This magic suit was made of paper and the typeface made the wearer look like whatever the king wanted the wearer to look like. One time it would be blue to show that the king was honest and sincere. Another time it would be red to show the king's anger. Another time it would be white - the color of purity and justice. When the king was doing evil black deeds the suit could make him look like he was dressed in white in an instant. The suit also had buttons that could talk and show pictures.

This last part was necessary because the suit changed color so often that the people had to be told what it all meant and the reason for the changes. The king would wear play-clothes when working, and he would have on Sunday clothes when he was doing things he oughtn't. This was very confusing to the simple hardworking people.

3 Mathews objected to rule by strangers; Kahl was in the process of setting up independent townships for bankrupted farmers - townships that obeyed God's Law only. Both were killed and incinerated.

The tailor who furnished the king's clothes had many people working for him, ! 4  and they worked hard to make clothes the king ordered. In America the clothes made the emperor look like the president. In England he looked like the king. In Japan, the ancient emperor. In the USSR, a Commissar. But, it was just the clothes. The same king ruled them all.

These magic clothes let the emperor persuade his subjects that they actually ruled themselves, that they could choose their own leaders. It was done in this way: In the whole land there might be two bad blackhearted scoundrels who would not tell the truth and who took candy from babies. These two were just the right kind for the emperor. If they agreed to work for the emperor the emperor would give them new clothes and pretty fairy tales would be told about them by the talking buttons, and everyone who gathered about every night after supper to listen would learn to love them.

After the people had been taught to love these two bad men, they were told to choose one of them to be their next leader. The choice was just between the two. No one else was ever talked about except those who worked for the emperor.

4 There are more than 25,000 newspapers and TV stations in America alone. Practically all are combined into about 12 chains which in turn are related to each other in one way or another.

After being elected, the men showed that they were bad by taking the people's money and becoming rich. When this happened and the people began to grumble, it was they who were blamed by the magic talking clothes because they had voted the scoundrels into office. They were told that it was all their fault. In fact, the people were always told that everything bad that was being done to them was their own fault.

The emperor did the same thing in all the lands that he had conquered and ruled. Everyone was allowed to choose their own leaders in "free democratic" elections just like their brothers everywhere else.

The Parade

The bad emperor has three champions who keep him on his throne.

- King Midas - "the gold Touch".!6
- Goldath "the enforcer",
- The Emperor's Magic Talking Clothes - "the mouth".!8

The bad emperor says that the Old Ruler has gone away and is dead. The Old Ruler has not gone away. He is only

5 "Let him not have ... abundance of riches ... let him be restrained, lest he become so potent that his state become inconsistent with your welfare." Josephus Antiquities 4:8:17

7 "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt 25:40

8 "If a false witness rise up ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother." Deu 19:16-17

allowing the latest evil emperor to rule so that He can determine who of his people love Him.⁹

He has watched this latest ruler break his ancient Law. He has watched each of the emperor's champions break the Law. This Law has judged and condemned them. They know this and now tremble fearfully as they await execution of sentence.

In the world of fairy tales the king is always on parade. Watching the parade are those whose eyes The Law has opened, and they see through the paper veil with the eyes of children. They see the emperor as he is. They see him unbathed. He is like a sepulcher in which reside dead men's bones. They say:

See! He wears no clothes!

The emperor hears and looks startled. He clutches his rags about him and, trying to once again deceive, rapidly changes their color. Pretending to hear nothing, he marches on with his champions close about to defend him. But the cry mounts as others begin to see:

"Look! The emperor wears no clothes! The emperor wears no clothes!"

ED: The establishment launched the Canadian Zundel trial to stop the re-printing of old books which might hinder establishment parasitic operations.

Evidence from accepted authorities showing only 4,237,000 potential victims living in occupied areas during WW II, and that 4,000,000 of these had applied for reparations, made the 6 million myth look silly. The corrupt Canadian court would not allow this evidence to be admitted. Not admitted either was the Leuchter Report by the world's ONLY gas chamber engineering expert proving conclusively that the so-called gas chambers at Auschwitz, Birkenau, and Majdenek had never been used, and could NOT have been used to gas people. The whole thing was based on a lie. Lies are being exposed faster than they can be papered over, but that did not stop Zundel's conviction. Australia's great natural wealth is now the target. The establishment cannot withstand criticism, so it eliminates it.

ALTERNATE MEDIA: The West's "white knight" is its alternate media. Much of it crouches quietly, avoids toes, and hopes for an establishment bone. A plug by a major paper or TV program could bring financial riches and security. To get the plug one must not print blacked-out material - only pretend to. Thus, basic information remains un-reported in many quarters. The alternate-media's only reason for existence is to give its readers something the establishment media will not provide. The fact that it exists makes it dangerous and an establishment enemy.

The acid test for an alternate-media publication? The establishment media will not, that is - "WILL NOT" - tolerate God's Law. Pious sayings by approved homespun TV actors posing as Christians, mumbo-jumbo names, and flakey air-headed talk about "sweet Jesus" is OK, but Jesus' Law WILL NOT BE TOLERATED. An editor has burned the bridge when he quotes - "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them ... shall be put to death." Lev 20:13, or "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15, or, "This is love, that we walk after his commandments." 2 Jno 6. Print any of these in a publication and it is forever beyond the pale. It will never get that plug that brings the rainbow's pot of gold unto gold. Until the alternate media's editor chooses sides, he remain's "iffy".

FOOTBALL: I would not allow my boys to wrestle or play football because of possible infection from AIDS carriers. INSIGHT March 12, 1990, p. 48, carries an article which states that a herpes- type synonymous with herpes simplex I is causing regional epidemics among high school wrestlers and rugby players who have frequent skin-to-skin contact. Those infected are afflicted for life with recurrent lesions on the head, arms or upper body. It can spread to the eyes, possibly causing blindness.

REPORTERS: British reporters are again accused by Cape Town police of inciting unrest in the black homelands. In the past scores of Blacks have been held by other Blacks for hours and then burned to death to furnish "news" for their grinding cameras. Scorched bodies, victims of "necklacing" with automobile tires dot reporter trails in S. Africa. The deaths of hundreds in warfare between Black tribes can be laid at their feet. Reporters, with their lies, twisted fabricated stories, and insinuations brought on the Boer War, the War Between The States, and World Wars I and II. In my studies and personal dealing with them I have seldom known them to hesitate to twist the truth when they needed to further their aim of taking property from private owners and giving it to their masters. People are beginning to identify them for what they are - agents provocateur, death merchants, dangerous murderers, people who turn a peaceful world into one bathed in blood. After freely going about doing their mischief for years they are now beginning to pay the price for their calumnies. Nation after nation is beginning to look the other way as a world's savaged people exacts vengeance. *"If a false witness rise up ... The following article was excerpted from The Nationalist, November, 1988, 30505, Knoxville, TX 37930.

Plant Closings

"Avtex Fibers Inc., the world's largest rayon manufacturing plant, will close down in November throwing 1300 employees out of work in Front Royal, Virginia ...

"Two hundred angry Avtex workers met on the evening of November 2nd, in the union hall, to demand that the company help them find new work or at least pay them termination benefits. But that is not what these workers should have demanded ...

"In 1984, the workers of the Weirton Steel factory in Weirton, W. Virginia purchased the bankrupt company.

They quickly turned it into one of the 10 most profitable steel factories in the country. In the first full year, 1985, worker- owned Weirton posted a $61 million profit ...

"There are laws now on the books that can help them achieve worker ownership. ... There are more than 5,000 employee- owned plants now operating in the U.S., though most are very small ...

"In the future there will be thousands of plant closings just like Avtex ... The union will not advocate worker-ownership because there is no place for a union in such a company. Both the union and management will betray the worker."

Debt - The Principal Problem

The concept of worker/owners is sound. After receiving their land share,¹ working "shares" was the basis of early land and sea trading expeditions, and manufacturing projects. It wasn't until much later, when the workers had had their land taken away that they, given no viable choice, were then stockpiled in cities to become wage-slaves to be bought and sold with the plant.

The benefits of a worker/owner business should be clear to everyone. In the media business it would stop the propaganda abuse of absentee owners who don't care about local conditions. It would stop plants shutting down and moving overseas. The many benefits are obvious, which is why the giant American Airlines and other corporations are trying to convert into worker/owner operations.

This solves one problem, but it does not solve the biggest problem of almost every business in America, which is DEBT! A factory may be poorly run and still make a profit if it is debt- free. A well run plant, heavily in debt, cannot make a single mistake and survive. Whether it is owned by a distant corporation or by worker/owners makes absolutely no difference.

It does no good in the long term if the pilots and mechanics of one of the nation's largest airlines go so heavily into debt to buy the airline that they will be unable to pay the bank's interest and principal and still operate properly. There will be nothing left to buy planes and equipment. Chances are they will soon be forced to bankrupt and the entire airline will fall into the laps of the lenders.

Debt Conflict

No lender wants the debtor to become debt-free and escape his clutches. The traditional debtor/lender relationship based on the usury contract of lending $10 for the repayment of $11 when only $10 exists, always boils down to one of confrontation. In time, the borrower learns that he has been victimized and refuses to pay. The rich lender sends in SWAT teams, police, and even paid armies to collect entire nations. This conflict continues until the people destroy the usurers, the usurers subdue or destroy the protesters, or a truce is reached where the debtors bankrupt, peacefully turn all their possessions over to the lenders, and the system starts all over again with the people as beggars, or wage-slaves, trying once again to buy their freedom. A few are always allowed to make it to encourage the rest to try.

Debt/Equity Conversion

The best choice is to do away completely with the usury system and adopt a no-interest banking system similar to that used by the Arabs. Since this would cause war with the lenders, the next best solution to the debt problem is to "convert debt into equity." This erases the large debt that is the major culprit in most corporate disasters.² Converting debt into equity is easily done.

For example: If, on April 2, 1982, ABC Company borrowed $1,000,000, and the company stock closed at $10 on that date, simply divide the price of the stock into the $1,000,000 debt. In this way one obtains 100,000 shares of - $10 PREFERRED STOCK. This stock is given to the debt holders in place of the debt.³

Under this new arrangement, if the company makes money, all prosper. If the company loses money, all suffer. In any event the chances of success are immeasurably improved with the removal of debilitating debt.

Think fast, America, a smart decision to do something won't help if it comes AFTER your plant and means of livelihood has been moved to Mexico or China by owners who care less about you than they care about dirt.

2 This ignores the age old argument that usurers are entitled to nothing since what they have was gotten illegally by fraud and as a consequence are under God's sentence of death. "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13

3 Suitable call dates w/buy-backs may be included. If the lenders refuse - the eternal worker's threat is that the company will never again make a profit.

It's dollars and cents. Face it, there is a limited amount of dirt, and there are unlimited numbers of people.

UNFILTERED NEWS

RUPERT MURDOCH, media mogul, will sell some stations to raise money to service some of his $6.1 billion indebtedness. He will focus attention on certain of his acquisitions such as Sky Television, Twentieth-Century Fox, Metromedia TV stations, Fox TV network, Harper & Row and TV Guide.

We are told that Murdoch is another of those unusual chaps who because of skill, attention to detail, and hard work has managed to multiply a few million dollars at the end of WW II into many thousands of millions of dollars worth of stations, papers, movie studios, and magazines. Hard work and attention to detail? All by himself? Yeah!

FAIRNESS: The Supreme Court refused to reinstate the "fairness doctrine" that gives opponents equal time to answer slander. It had been imposed on broadcasters in 1949 but seldom used until 1987 when protesters began to answer their accusers. At that time the court reversed itself and decided that the act violated the free-press doctrine.

ED: The Court had better start using its collective head. Slander will be answered in one way or another.⁴ Slanderers used to be challenged to fight duels. Establishment legislatures outlawed duels. Slanderers were taken to court. Establishment appointed judges protected the slanderers. Now, reporters and media-persons are increasingly being violently treated by those they have offended. It will get worse until the media-abused are given an opportunity to reply.

RICO USED AGAINST PORN: "An appeals court in Richmond, VA said a lower court could order the seizure of ... magazines and videos from a VA couple convicted of distributing obscene material ... The Prybas' chain of 12 video stores, with total sales of $2 million in 1986, were shut down as a result." WSJ, Apr. 12, 1990. p. B8.

ED: This decision will be appealed to the Supreme Court. If it is reversed it will add to the pressures placed on Christian society. The ultimate outcome is predictable. This is the same religion that produced the Crusaders.

CRIME: "Nearly half the city's professional women have been mugged, robbed or raped..." according to a poll. NY Post, March 6, 1990.

SOUTH AFRICA'S President De Klerk has his White conservative constituents where he wants them. Immediately after his election he dismantled the National Security system of military and police who kept order in Black townships, and he downgraded the State Security Council which made most important decisions. This neutralized the effect of White opposition parties who are disproportionately represented in the police and military. De Klerk has committed to a test of White opinion, which is likely to take effect as a referendum. In this he has the solid backing of the establishment media whose one-way propaganda is aimed at convincing Whites to turn S. Africa into a Black-ruled Rhodesia. Elections are not scheduled before 1994.

The disenchanted Whites can force an election by the mass resignation of their 41 members of Parliament. If they do, De Klerk can delay elections for six months longer and have a free hand to do anything he wants in the interim. Not having a choice or an effective voice is the reason the Whites are talking about being forced to take up arms. De Klerk is compared to a cancer cell. Something that kills unless removed.

ARCHIE BUNKER: To make White S. Africans look ridiculous, the S. African Broadcasting Corporation has launched an Archie Bunker type program called "People Like Us." The NY Times of Jan 7, 1990, states that S. Africa's Archie Bunker is named Barney Bosman, a building inspector, who "argues that .. antelopes stick to antelopes, and giraffes to giraffes, so people should not deviate from their own kind. ... Barney ... does not confine his intolerance to non- whites; he does not like Jews, Portuguese, etc." Bosman is also down on women.

His son-in-law is a personable up-to-date white integrationist who buys the house next door and resells it to a very upscale mulatto doctor who is obviously superior to Barney in every way. "To avoid inciting or offending Whites" the show is aired at 10:25 on Saturday night when the majority of viewers are black.

If the pilot goes well the same format may be expected to be used next in Australia with an Australian Archie Bunker opposite either a wealthy Black or a New Zealand Mauri, a Canadian Archie Bunker vs. an Indian Sikh, and an English Archie Bunker vs. an educated, intelligent, and wealthy oriental.

The Archie Bunker treatment is effective in portraying in a derogatory manner basic White values that if inflicted on any other race would be found by them to be offensive and unacceptable and probably result in boycott or having the offending TV station burnt down and its personnel "necklaced."

KISSING & AIDS: "Dear Dick: Note the increased incidence of open- mouth kissing on the TV. AIDS is far more likely to be transmitted by this type of kissing than by sex. The media must know better. People are being instructed and encouraged to kiss this way for the same reason that AIDS carriers are allowed to run loose and not be quarantined." J. L. - California

HOMOSEXUAL ATTACKS: NY Post, Jan 26, 1990 carried an article on the recent killing of a homosexual on Staten Island and commented that "We are facing a ... shocking and appalling increase in violence and defamation" against homosexuals.

"HOMOSEXUAL authors are coming out of the closet ... nationwide there are some 37 book stores that cater to homosexuals and at least 150 that have gay sections. Christopher Street magazine even has a gay best-seller list." New York Post, p. 6, Feb 15, 1990.

ED: This establishment-encouraged trend encourages violence. Many of the faithful do not believe that the Law has been done away.⁵

FRAT DEPLEDGES PLEDGE: Pink triangles, signifying "pervert-power," have been sprayed over the campus of the University of Vermont as a warning to a local fraternity that booted a pledge confessing to being a homosexual, a condition condemned by Christians. The university temporarily suspended the fraternity and turned the action over to the Greek Judicial Board, a student panel with punishment power. The board ordered the fraternity to apologize, refund the pledge fee, and to hold in-house education programs about homosexuality.

GOSPEL OF THOMAS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The Gospel Of Thomas was discovered in a ruined tomb in upper Egypt in 1945. It states 'If you have money, do not lend at interest, but give to him from whom you will not receive them (back).' [Log. 97] This is another effective reply to those who argue that Jesus permitted usury. He forbade it directly and in plain words." C. - California

OUR NORDIC RACE: "Dear Sir: Immigration affects business too. I read for the first time your book Our Nordic Race and it could have been Australia you were talking about instead of America. Australia is presently being over-run and bastardized by a flood of migrants from almost every nation on earth, but mainly from the Middle East and Asia." D. A. - Australia

USSR & ESAU: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Do you agree with the thesis that the USSR is going to aid the Islamic nations against Israel?" G. R. - Arizona

ED: For almost 1000 years the Russian Slavs have fought the Arabs and their kinsmen in one no-prisoner, atrocity-ridden war after another. Now we are told that the past is to be forgotten and the Slavs are going to help their ancient enemy become powerful and a menace to themselves. It strains credulity. There has been too much bloodshed, too much misery. There can be only the sword between the Slav and the Arab. Even the Jews are hated in the USSR because once their Khazar nation allied itself with the Golden Horde against the Slavs.

The Western Nordic must consider his distant kinsman, the Russian Slav, to be a brutally ridden horse, who has been ridden hard and put away wet without feed or water. A cautious sympathy and understanding is certainly in order, but that horse can kick like hell, and stand on your chest while feeding and not notice anything unusual about it.

SLAV vs TURK: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Hundreds of thousands of Bulgarian Turks are arriving in Turkey and elsewhere in Islam after being expelled by Bulgarian Slavs who are backed by the USSR. They are the remnants of Europe's Islamic invaders of 500 years ago. The Slavs also oppress Islamic minorities in the USSR who are now restless as a result. Islam, unable to absorb the mass of refugees, directs the overflow into Western Europe. Europe now has a big Islamic problem. The media in America, blood kin to both Slav and Turk, blacks out this growing problem. It's there, it's big time, and it's going to explode." G. F. - Cyprus

"Dear Mr. Hoskins; It's interesting, the pictures I see coming from the USSR show people just like us." G. R. - Virginia

ED: Basic propaganda. Pictures sent to Western lands show Westerners. Pictures sent to Islamic countries show dark skinned Arab types. Pictures sent to the orient show orientals. The Soviet experiment has changed names, but it is still all things to all people.

MANDELLA: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: How does the freeing of Mandella in South Africa fit in?" R. C. - Texas

ED: There are six distinct tribes (races) in South Africa. The Whites are one. They are also the police who keep the Black tribes from getting at each other. The largest tribe is the Zulu. Mandella represents another hostile tribe. The Zulus remember what happened in Rhodesia when the establishment backed one tribe into power. The smaller tribe was later massacred. The Zulus expect Mandella to do the same to them if given a chance. In spite of media lies - most Blacks and most Whites don't want Mandella to take over political power. They are afraid of him.

Also, don't forget how most of the Blacks got there in the first place. The establishment brought them in by the millions to work establishment mines. The same establishment is bringing Orientals and Mexicans into the U.S. to man American industry. Mandella has been freed to create revolution. In the revolution the Whites will be entirely displaced. Of course millions of Blacks will die at each other's hands. But, the establishment has never been squeamish about breaking eggs to make an omelet - their omelet.

ESSENES: "Dear Dick: Who were the Essenes? M. K. - Connecticut

ED: One of the three major religious groups active in Palestine in Jesus' day - Pharisees, Sadducees, and Essenes. Many believe that Jesus was an Essene since there is no evidence that the town of Nazareth ever existed, while an Essene group of Nazarites did, and many of Jesus' beliefs are identical to many of the known Essene beliefs. Some speculate that the Jesus was "Jesus the Nazarite," rather than Jesus of Nazareth. The Dead Sea Scrolls are being carefully bottled up through the connivance of Israeli, Catholic, and Protestant interests to protect the status quo - which is - whatever the Israelis, Catholics, and Protestants say the truth is.

CHIEF PRIEST: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Who do you consider the most influential religious leader in the country?" M. W. - California

ED: Easy. The head of the IRS. Most preachers do whatever he wants, no questions asked. Only God and the IRS have this power.

JEFFERSON BIBLE: "Dear Dick: What about Thomas Jefferson's Bible? And did he raise a flock of mulatto children as establishment propagandists say?" M. A. - New Jersey

ED: TJ was a Bible student. He published a Bible leaving out things he believed were scribal insertions. To understand the man you have to read his Bible. Many preachers hate TJ and his Bible because if TJ can ignore everything other than the Laws, Statutes, and Judgments, and the direct words of Jesus, others can too. If a preacher says that the Law is done away and TJ didn't accept his source, the preacher loses his authority, and he is mad!

As for raising a flock of mulatto children, the establishment has told that tale for years. The story has absolutely no truth to it. TJ was a very moral man. He was just as a slave master, even paying slaves for doing the unpleasant job of cleaning privies. He was a thoroughly Christian gentleman who despised the establishment preachers of his day. The establishment keeps the story alive to detract from the fact that he was a leading light in the African Colonization Movement. Take a close look at the next person you see telling the story and consider the source. You'll see what I mean.

ANCIENT BOOKS: "Dear Dick: You keep referring to the ancient books. What are these books?" R. M. - Virginia

ED: The books Jesus used in addition to the ones in the Bible. Jasher, Adam & Eve, Enoch, etc. There's quite a list. These are invaluable in filling gaps in Bible stories. Of course, they too contain scribal insertions. These can be instantly spotted when the insertions violate The Law. The Law is the one thing that has descended from antiquity with no additions.

The ancients agreed that The Word is God. Therefore, tampering with it was tampering with God and was considered blasphemy. The one tampering was subject to be punished accordingly. That didn't stop scribes from trying to get around the LAW. They still do. There are many instances of the attempt, all easy to spot when passed through the filter of the LAW.

FAGOT: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Why are homosexuals called 'fagots'?"

ED: Fagots - a bundle. Fuel for the fires of hell.

IDENTIFYING AIDS: Mr. Hoskins: I am one of your 19 year old readers. My girl friend is a nurse and also works at a '7- 11 Store'. She says that one way to identify AIDS carriers is to look at their eyes. Those infected often have a yellow cast to them which is not usual in young people, and their skin often looks yellowish too. Many also breathe so you can hear them, and take a deep breath every so often. She's married and says that young men and women should have nothing to do with sex until they too are married, and the girl should marry a husband selected by her father. I agree, and I thought you might like to know." H. G. - Virginia

SEGREGATED EATING: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What was the philosophic reason for segregated lunch rooms and rest rooms in the South - if there was one?" M. P. - Massachusetts

ED: The WORD forbids it.⁶ Blacks commit 8 times more assaults than do Whites, 9 times more rapes, 14 times more murders, 19 times more armed robberies, and Black neighborhoods are 35 times more violent than White communities. They furnish most of the fornicators, drunkards, and thieves. Neither are they brothers according to The WORD.⁷

The official state reason for separation was "health". Blacks have long been known to carry a number of communicable diseases that may be passed on by sharing public facilities.

PIERCE - THE ORDER: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I received a copy of that portion of your manuscript dealing with THE ORDER and mailed it back with a few corrections and suggestions. Since my capture I have learned and come to the conclusion that working with others is a sure sign of eventual failure. There are only three men that I would ever work with again. They too, identify with the Laws, Statutes, and Judgments of Jesus Christ and are suffering under the same circumstances that I am.

"In response to your question would I 'work with non-Christians again?' the answer is an unequivocal 'NO!' Not only would they have to be Christians, but they would have to believe in the Law- commands of Yah-Yahshua and their life would have to manifest those beliefs." Sincerely, Bruce C. Pierce, Illinois

BLACK PRIEST: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is a black priest?" G. R. - Missouri.

ED: Today, the media refers to Blacks who are priests as "black priests." It used to refer to "warlocks." It also could refer to preachers who taught man's law in place of God's Law. Those who teach God's Law, or The Law, were referred to as white priests. The difference was that of light and dark. The term means many things.

⁷ (1) "Whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother." Matt 2:35. (2) "By their fruits ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

SOLIDARITY: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I have reservations about Solidarity taking the rule in Poland." H. Z. - New York

ED: You are wise! A healthy body will identify an alien disease and instantly attack and expel it. To remain, the disease must first take over the body's defenses. For the Communist Party to relinquish rule without strings to an hostile Solidarity would destroy a 50-year effort. To retain control, they must furnish both ruling and opposition parties. The establishment, the ones who actually rule Poland, are hand-in-glove with Solidarity and the Communist government under a new name. The disease rages there and here.

RACIST: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Just what is a 'racist'? J. M. - Oklahoma

ED: Depends on the speaker. In Haiti, Whites can't vote, own land, or hold public office. The same in most Black African nations, and the Israeli nation. There it is called a "healthy nationalism." Healthy White nationalism is racism to others who exercise a healthy nationalism of their own.

VIGILANTE: Dear Mr. Hoskins: "What is the difference between a vigilante and a Phineas Priest? R. A. - New Jersey

ED: A Phineas Priest acts in obedience to the Laws of God, to keep God's vengeance and plague from his people. A vigilante acts to protect his own interests. A vigilante may do both.

"(He is) a person of fair intellect, slight education, limited knowledge, no research, kind heart, jocular disposition; a man, in short, of excellent nature - just the man with his inexperience in statesmanship, and with his vague and hazy notions of political ethics and constitutional history and law, to be misled by the sophists of his party, and to be the instrument of crafty and unscrupulous politicians."

"Another man who had known the President well in earlier years said that while it has been generally believed that a love of freedom, presumably economic freedom, is the President's ruling passion. 'Nothing is farther from the truth.' Instead, he went on, the thirst for distinction has always been the 'one, intense, all-absorbing passion of his life.'

"Still another ... a former vice-president in another administration had occasion to meet with the President at a grave moment when war and peace hung in the balance. He was appalled, he said later, at the President's 'flippancy, evasiveness, and cheerful ignorance.' In reply to an analog from British history, the President blandly stated, 'I don't presume to be posted in history. On all such matters I will turn you over to the Secretary of State.'"

INDIAN: "Mr. Hoskins: I killed a man and am in the penitentiary. I expect to be paroled. My grandmother was an Indian. I have blond hair and blue eyes. Does the law "No bastard (mixed-breed) may enter the congregation of Israel", prevent me from marrying a "white" girl when I leave prison. Preachers won't give me a straight answer." J.M. - Montana

ED: I have a German shepherd. I call - she comes. One thousand times I call - she comes each time. She has no choice. For 1000 generations all German shepherds before her who did not come were killed or prevented from breeding. She is descended from those who obey.

A "White" man is like the Shepherd. God's Law calls - he comes. He has no choice. For 1000 generations the murderers and rapists among his people were executed by his Law, or not allowed to breed. Few slipped through the Law's net - very few. This trait is so ingrained that strangers may cheat him, rob him, rape his women, steal his children, and kill him. Only reluctantly will he defend himself. This has a limit.

Such is not the case with other strangers such as blacks. They are the result of 1000 generations of those who bought wives by stealing cattle and who rose to authority by murder. Inefficient thieves and murderers did not gain cattle with which to buy wives. They did not reproduce. Like breeds like. Our jails are filled with law breaking blacks. They are the result of selective breeding.

The Indian's story is the same. For 1000 generations they rewarded murder and horse stealing. The best murderer was made "chief" and many wives were bought by the best horse thief. The product is the result of 1000 generations of thieves and murderers. Like breeds like. The jails in the American West are filled with them. A wolf is "ravening" before he tears his first sheep.

You sound like a nice guy. I wish you well. But, in spite of your blond hair and blue eyes and sounding like a nice guy, you murdered a man. If you had not, it is likely your son will (if you have one), or his son. Like breeds like.

This is the reason the Law forbids the nation of the lawful from marrying the unlawful; "Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill (the Law). Math 5:17." "There shall no stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) eat of the holy thing (the Law)." Lev 22:10. This is a statement of fact. If we do associate with the lawless the scripture states; "There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers (Heb: "zûwr - racial alien), and after them I will go." Jer 2:25.

The next part is cut and dried; "But if ye will not ... do all these commandments; ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children ..." Lev 26:14-35.

If this happens and our children are caught and married to strangers the law requires this; "...If the priest's daughter (each of the lawful is a priest) also be married unto a stranger (zwer), she may not eat of an offering of the holy thing (one cannot mix unlawful with lawful). But if the priest's daughter be a widow or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house she shall eat of her father's meat (repentance must be followed by action); but there shall no stranger (zûwr) eat thereof (statement of fact). Lev 22:10-13"

The greatest curse for us is this - to be forsaken by our God; "... thou hast forsaken thy people ... because ... they please themselves in the children of strangers." Isa 2:6 What to the willful stranger is mere amusement, is to us - death! The Law made our people. We are the product of the Law. The absence of Law destroys us.

You must find one of your own to marry. Your offspring will be like you. If you enter our nation you will bring your 1000 ancestors with you. To absorb you is to absorb your ancestors. Our nation will become like them, lawless. Scripture says that the Word is God. We will have violated and abandoned the Word. Once this happens we will be abandoned by the Word.

In the past many of our nations have abandoned the Word and been destroyed as a consequence. Many of our nations have been saved when the WORD sent the Phinheas Priesthood to end the problem. This is not a matter to be taken lightly.

The WORD and the people created by The WORD bless all. Protect them and they can and will protect you.

Chapter 189

FOOLPROOF SCHEME TO DESTROY A NATION

The enemy has recently kicked off a major media campaign.

The campaign now being waged by TV, Hollywood, magazines and newspapers is to make racial intermarriage socially acceptable.

God absolutely forbids racial intermarriage;

(1) "Thou shalt not take a wife ... of the Canaanites ... but thou shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4. (2) "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange (nokriy - alien) wives of the people of the land." Neh 13:23-27. (3) "They have delt treacherously against the Lord: for they have begotten strange (zûwr - racial alien) children." Hosea 5:7. (4) Ezra the priest stood and said "Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives ... now ... separate yourselves from the people of the land and from the strange wives ... until the wrath of our God (plague) for this matter be turned from us." Ezek 10:10-14. (5) "Neither shalt thou make marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son." Deut 7:3. (6) "We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange (nokriy: foreign, non- relative, alien) wives ... therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the ... commandment of our God." Ezek 10:2- 3.

Intermarriage was the single most talked about subject between the years 1865 and 1940 since it lies at the heart of Christianity. Most states followed the public discussion and pre-empted the work of the Phineas Priesthood¹ with laws prohibiting interracial marriages.

After WW II, the media banned public discussion of the subject. The single viewpoint permitted was the one favorable to racial intermarriage. Propaganda, state-religion, judicial and political pressure joined to promote the dubious practice. All done in the absence of public debate.

The question asked is WHY? Josephus answered it more than 2,000 years ago. The answer is more devious than commonly thought. The following is taken from the writings of Josephus, the constant companion of yesterday's student of Christianity.

Balak's Plot To Destroy The Men² Of Israel

Balak hated the Israelites (not Jews), and wanted to destroy them. He went to the wise man Balaam for advice on how this was to be most easily accomplished. Balaam advised Balak, the ruler of the Moabites, that he must do the following in order to destroy the Israelites:

"If you ... gain a victory over them (the Israelites, then do thusly)

"Set out the handsomest ... of your daughters ... then ... send them to be near the Israelites ... and when they are enamored of them ... persuade them to leave off their obedience to their own laws and the word of that God who established them ... for by this means God will be angry at them. ... when Balaam had suggested this counsel to them, he went his way." Antiquities 4:6:6

The point made is that strangers, unable to destroy the Israelites openly, tried to make them violate God's Law against intermarriage. If they could be made to violate this law, it would anger their own God who had promised that he would destroy his own people if they ever intermarried with any other people. A remarkable plan, one diabolical in its simplicity.³ The proof that the plan works is the fact that God's people have been destroyed in every nation where intermarriage with strangers has taken place.

The story continues. A powerful Israelite chief objected to being told what he could do and what he could not do,

2 Strong's Concordance, MAN - Heb: "Adam," to blush red

3 The plot was activated by merely bringing Israel in contact with strangers and letting nature do the rest.

and that he could not sleep with a stranger. And, so, he determined to do it anyway, which was rebellion against God the Word.

Powerful Israelites Rebel Against God

*"Zimri, the head of the tribe of Simeon, accompanied with Cozbi, a Midianitish woman ... and being desired by her to disregard the laws of Moses (against racial intermarriage) ... by taking a stranger to wife ..."*⁴

*"When things were thus ... Zimri arose up ... and said '... Moses, thou art at liberty to make use of such laws as thou art so fond ... but thou shalt not have me one of thy followers in thy tyrannical commands ... thou deprivest us of the sweetness of life, which consists in acting according to our own wills.'" Antiquities 4:6:10*⁵

The situation was thus. If Zimri were allowed to violate the Law of God unpunished, God would destroy them. If he were punished, God would spare them. It was a choice between life and death.

Certain of God's people fear God more than man. The next is what followed:

Phineas Acts

"Phineas, a man ... better than the rest of the young men ... was greatly troubled at what was done by Zimri, he resolved in earnest to inflict punishment on him ... to prevent this transgression from proceeding further,

4 A stranger doing the will of God will not attempt to enter into the congregation since the Law states "A bastard (mixed breed) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord." Deut 23:2. Those who violate the will of God by trying are therefore not brothers.

5 So much for "freedom of choice" among God's people.

which would happen if the ringleaders were not punished ...

"So he came to Zimri's tent, and slew him with his javelin, and with it he slew Cozbi also.⁶ Upon which, all those young men that had a regard to virtue, ... imitated Phineas' boldness, and slew those that were found to be guilty of the same crime with Zimri. Accordingly, many of those that had transgressed, perished by the magnanimous valor of these young men, and the rest all perished by a plague,⁷ which distemper God himself inflicted upon them... (Those) who ... had persuaded⁸ them to go on (intermarry with strangers), were esteemed (considered) by God as partners in their wickedness ...

"This Balaam ... did ... suggest that advice to them, by making use of which, our enemies had well-nigh corrupted the whole multitude of the Hebrews with their wiles." Antiquities 4:6:12-13

The Phineas Priesthood Is Born

God rewarded Phineas for his act in this manner:

"Phineas ... hath turned my wrath away ... that I consumed not the children of Israel ... Wherefore ... I give unto him ... the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he ... made an atonement for the children of Israel." Num. 25:11-13

6 The story is repeated in the KJ Bible, Numbers 25.

7 The continuous warning is that PLAGUE is the greatest punishment for mixing with strangers. Plague kills many more than does war.

8 "If a false witness rise up ... Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother." Deut 19:16-19.

Thus, the Priesthood of Phineas was born. It is the nemesis of evil doers. Owing its allegiance to God only, it cannot be bought, negotiated with, or deflected from its purpose which is to uphold the Laws of God.

To blunt its effectiveness, media policy reports only the evil doers' successes and Christian defeats. In this way they hope to generate a feeling of helplessness and hopelessness in the victim. Never, if they can help it, will they report the work of a Phineas Priest. Who would do evil if he knew others doing so were punished? Formerly, one evil doer could be punished and 100,000 would learn. That is no longer true. The punishment is not reported, and so:

"Because the sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of man is fully set to do evil." Eccl 8:11

Evil doers, not knowing that others are punished, believe themselves protected and safe, and so they grow worse. Peace officers disclose that Westerners are the victims in nine out of ten interracial assaults. But, the media say that the least violent, the least criminally inclined people in the world, commit "hate crimes." "Hate statutes" now punish those who are least violent. Assault, rape, and murder are to be tolerated as the new way of life. The media protect their deception by censoring the victim's or his assailant's race.

The media dare not disclose the ongoing successes of the Phineas priesthood.⁹ To do so would strike fear in the hearts of the enemies of God and cause them to stop their evil ways. The evil ones, not knowing that they are to be punished, continue. The media is therefore responsible for the ongoing violence, for the fact that the punishment of one evil doer no longer warns 100,000. Perhaps this is why the scriptures state that 2/3 will have to die in the last days so that 1/3 might emerge pure. One may rest assured that the Christian God will prevail, and that His priests will be in the forefront.

⁹ "Vigilantes of Christendom," the name of the writer's upcoming book on the subject.

Plague Comes From God

Each Phineas story dealing with strangers reveals that the plague is God's additional punishment. The inference is that whenever there is unlawful contact with strangers, as surely as night follows day, plague will punish both the offenders and those who allow the offense. Ignorance is not excused.

"And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel ... and he sent a pestilence amongst them.

References to the plague being God's curse fill the scriptures, as are references of God's people desperately making amends to prevent it:

"Get you up from this congregation ... and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lord; the plague is begun." Num 16:45-46

Phineas stopped the plague:

"Then up stood Phineas, and executed judgment, and so the plague was stayed." Ps 106:30

And in Josephus:

"So he came to Zimri's tent, and slew him with his javelin, and with it he slew Cozbi also. ... and the rest all perished by a plague." Josephus, Antiquities 4:6:12

Strangers - Disease Factories

Because of their personal habits strangers were compared to dogs, wolves, or pigs. They, too, will eat anything and breed anything. They contract disease by their promiscuous eating and breeding habits and spread it to others. Strangers almost always have some special sort of disease that health authorities have to cope with.

Plague-type diseases in the West have ALWAYS started with strangers, and these plagues usually kill from 1/4 to 3/4s of the population. This is one of the reasons that Phineas punished Zimri and Cozbi.

Balik's plan to destroy Israel was diabolical in its simplicity and depth. Make available strange women to seduce the Israelites. This act violates the Law of God, and the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob will destroy his own people because he said he would.

This is the true plan of the enemy. It is the ultimate curse - to cause a people to be destroyed by their own God because they violated His Law.

The establishment erects an umbrella over the cow's head to take its mind off the wolves tearing its hind-quarters. Think "health through smoking ban." Don't think "prohibition of diversity of opinion." "Controversial" is the code name for the existence of a non-establishment opinion. Only one opinion is allowed on campus today dealing with matters branded "controversial." Pro-smokers have ruled for 400 years. Let's see how they make out now since the

PARA-MILITARY: A feature story on #5 French Television Network on April 3, 1990 showed para-military groups undergoing training in the vicinity of Paris. Kill 'em to get rid of the owner and put the property up for grabs, but a banker? Come on now. The media immediately blamed the killing of JFK on the people of Dallas until the word got out that it actually WAS done by the fed-up people of Dallas, and then, two days later they blamed it on Lee Harvey Oswald, the communist. The media also first reported that the federal judges, who were recently slain, were killed by Colombian drug dealers, and that recent vigilante activity against anti-social elements in Ohio, New Jersey, and Texas was ongoing gang warfare, etc. Don't let the dog know that his bite hurts and then maybe he won't bite. Chapter 190

WORKING THE RAILROAD SCAM

Railroads

We took Rebecca to the train station. This is the daughter who had the accident. She has completely recovered and with a portfolio of carefully selected photographs under her arm is off to the city to join 10,000 others who are trying for a modeling job.

* * * * *

It was 5:45 AM and semi-dark. The train station was shabby. Paint was peeling from the walls; weeds growing in the little grassy parks on both sides of the tracks that were so well-tended 40 years ago. Raw dirt from a fuel tank excavation done months ago lay as it was left. All but two windows on one side of the station were broken.

There used to be two railroad tracks entering the station. Now there is one. There were hundreds of yards of covered walkways covering the waiting platform on both sides of the tracks. They are gone leaving no clue that they had ever been there.

Why? What is the reason for this decay, this neglect?

Things aren't always as they seem. Part of the neglect may be due to the railroad's effort to win public sympathy to reduce state taxes. The high railroad taxes imposed by the State of Virginia is the thing that caused the disappearance of all of yesterday's numerous railroad structures.

Taxes have been placed on everything that a railroad has and they are raised to the limit in Virginia. Every inch of track, every foot of roofing, every building. To avoid these taxes the second line of track entering the station was removed. The walkways and unused buildings were demolished for the same reason. The assessed value of the station is kept at rock bottom.

Virginia hates the railroads.

Financing the Railroad

Virginia, and most of the states of the South, has a persecution complex. The reason is because they have been persecuted. The complex was created by the high tariffs before the War Between The States directed exclusively against them, and the looting done during the War; but nothing done before, or during, quite equaled what the railroad owners did afterwards.

Southerners who participated in the war were treated as war criminals and deprived of the vote; Blacks were franchised. The Blacks were the voting majority. They could vote for whatever they wanted and get it - whiskey, lavish homes, women - if it could be bought with money wrung from a conquered people, they had it.

Carpetbagger agents of the northeast financial interests came south to lobby the Black legislators to vote for their private ventures. Railroads were at that time their number one interest.

Bribed Black legislators of Southern cities voted for "needed" railroad lines. It was a boondoggle all the way. Ten million dollars might be voted for the project. The bonds might be taken to New York where they were sold to a bank for cash at perhaps 30¢ on the dollar. The opportunity was there for the bank to immediately turn around and sell the bonds to their customers for 60¢, or 90¢ on the dollar. A quick 100%-200% on their investment.

This left the promoters $3 million in the railroad fund before expenses. Expenses were high. They might constitute $1 million, leaving $2 million dollars. Half of the $2 million fell between the cracks and was never accounted for, leaving $1 million that might actually go into building the railroad line.

After this remaining $1 million was spent and a portion of the rail line built, this railroad construction was donated by the Black governing bodies to the railroad as a gesture of good will. The railroad proceeded to set the rates and schedules. This generous gift benefited only the masters of the carpetbaggers who owned the railroads and the rest of the railroad's stockholders who enlarged their railroad holdings at no cost to themselves. The carpetbaggers, the Reconstruction name for lobbyist, had done their job well.

A $10,000,000 bond issue carrying 10% coupons, due in 30 years, required the White taxpayers to pay interest of $30,000,000. At maturity date it cost $10,000,000 to pay the bond holders. Total cost - $40,000,000 - or more. There was nothing to show for the $40 million. There was one visible beneficiary. The railroad.¹

This is why Virginia hates the railroads. Almost everything they have in the South was gained by what the old timers call "fraud." This is one main reason for the high taxes, why the stations look shabby. They exist only because of the blood, sweat, and tears of generations of Virginians.

The railroad scam, with variations, was used against the citizens of practically every state in the union. Most of the property that many of them own today was "donated" by "grateful" legislators in their pay.

Land Scam

The land-scam was highly developed by the 1830s. The technique was the same used in Europe to transfer land and wealth from its owners to the establishment. $10 was lent and a compounding debt of $11 was required to be repaid. The tidy foreclosed farms of Pennsylvania, New York, and New England were foreclosed and sold for top dollar to immigrant buyers who were encouraged to come to America just for that purpose.

In spite of media hype to the contrary, most immigrants of that period were far from penniless. Their photos show the quaint styles of the period, but close examination shows warm and substantial coats, hats, footwear, and clothing. Most of them were substantial farmers back home who had long saved for their own land and could make an impressive down payment on American farms that had been foreclosed in the great depression of 1837- 1842.²

Virginia farms and plantations were among the most highly developed and most desirable pieces of real estate in the world before the war. The war ruined trade, reducing revenues as much as half of pre-war volume.

Black rulers were elevated to rule and soldiers were posted to keep them there. Carpetbagger railroad and other pork barrel scams mushroomed debt. Farms were taxed to pay the debt. With revenues down and taxes up, foreclosures blossomed like flowers in spring. They took place by the tens of thousands. It was planned that way.

Carpetbaggers persuaded Black legislators to grant tax exemption to northeastern land companies. Then, as land agents, the carpetbaggers attended foreclosure sales buying farms for as low as 1¢ an acre. They accumulated millions of acres of prime plantation land.

Land Scam Worked Again

The Southern land scam continued the Pennsylvania - New England example. The immigration business was promoted to bring in new money and new owners. Good sturdy European farmers were willing to pay $100 an acre for land that would cost $2,000 an acre in their own native lands, and might have cost $800 or more in the pre-war South. The margin of profit on land purchased for as low as 1¢ an acre

2 If people believe disinformation about "penniless immigrants," they will never understand how so many could pay their passage and still afford to immediately move in and take over foreclosed farms. Many of today's Pennsylvania Dutch are descended from Germans who came in the 1830-1850 period to take over foreclosed farms built up by Germans (and British) of the 1740-1790 period.

was substantial - especially when made tax exempt by sympathetic legislatures.³

The land scam worked only partially.⁴ Most of this cheap southern land obtained at bankruptcy sales could not be sold. It has remained in syndicate hands down to the present day. The reason? White European immigrant buyers DID NOT come to the South. The plan that had worked so well in the North fell apart in the South. The Blacks had learned the full extent of their power.

Tens of thousands of Southern Whites tried to escape the intolerable conditions in the Black-ruled South by moving West. This suited the Blacks who wanted ALL Whites to go, thereby converting the South into an all-Black nation like Haiti. What had been started as a simple land scam developed into Black policy. Whites must go - and this included the Carpetbagger agents of the northeastern money interests who began to be voted out of office and replaced by Blacks.

The Blacks adamantly refused to do anything to encourage White immigrants to come into the very region that Southern Whites were leaving. The Blacks wanted their Black nation in America.

This ambitious course caused a contest for supremacy between the Blacks and the land-grabbing northeast establishment. To gain allies against this new Black enemy which was upsetting the land deal, the establishment's media suddenly declared that the Southern Whites were "victims of an unfortunate misunderstanding." This happened in 1873. From this date the northeast establishment allied themselves to Southern Whites to remove the intransigent and rebellious ruling Blacks. In return for help in removing the Blacks from power they were to retain control of their syndicate land.

3 The falling out between the carpetbaggers and the Blacks is a story in itself and a full chapter is given it in the author's upcoming book, Vigilantes.

4 Immediately following the war Southern banks were closed and immediately reopened under new establishment ownership. The same went for formerly profitable, but then bankrupted, southern businesses.

Black rule was deeply entrenched. It took more than ten years to remove them from power. By that time the prime Southern farms and plantations had grown up in trees and a worldwide depression was under way. The time to sell for top dollar to immigrants from Europe had passed.

Still, the massing of tens of millions of acres of prime plantation land obtained for practically nothing, land which later grew up into hundreds of millions of board feet of prime Southern timberland, land that is now owned by America's great paper companies that are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, is one of America's greatest success stories, we are told.

KING: Arizona governor signed a "King Day" bill which cancels a referendum on the issue. Thus far, whenever the King issue has been presented to the voters it has been voted down.

MALE PROSTITUTION: A Navy computer expert organized a 39-state male prostitution ring. Clients and prostitutes included banking executives, a Cincinnati priest, and a police officer. The network included people from 39 states, two Canadian provinces, South Korea, and Guam. The police stumbled on this while investigating the death from a heart attack of its organizer. (From The Cincinnati Inquirer, May 14, 1990, A-4.)

AIDS COMPUTER VIRUS: A floppy disc claiming to predict chances of contracting AIDS contains an actual computer virus. The program was mailed to 10,000 people and has damaged large corporation computers. Most were sent to European-based corporations, banks, and universities. Chase Manhattan Bank received the disc at its British headquarters in Bournemouth, Britain, but claimed that the virus was detected outside the system so that it never got into their computers. The "sinister software" has a built-in trigger to activate the virus after so many uses. The virus destroys all information on a computer. The disc is said to be "a professionally-designed package" sent by a bogus company, PC Cyborg.

ED: Note the targets. Note also the claim that the virus did not succeed. In a similar case in the U.S. the IRS said that a virus sent to one of their branches did not significantly damage many of their files as the pipeline had reported. It would be interesting to learn just how badly these institutions were in fact damaged.

The Virginia Taxpayers Association recently complained that "the political process in our state has broken down ... hundreds of thousands of Virginians will hear no candidate discussion of any issue ... simply because there's no money to mount opposition campaigns ... With public esteem of Congress now close to an all-time low, it's clear many Virginians would scarcely have less say about government if we were living under communist Politburo rule rather than the present arrangement. Some voters are so disgusted they have stopped going to the polls altogether." VTP Newsletter, 5/22/90, P.O. Box 663, Lynchburg, VA 24505.

ED: The emerging political power in America has subtly shifted from traditional grass-roots "good 'ole boy" political organization to the media. As a result of the inheritance tax wealthy taxpayers are forced to set up trusts to avoid taxes. Banks are named to administer them. Half the corporate stock in America is held in trust. The stock is registered in the bank's name (street name) to facilitate dividend collection; etc. The banks vote this stock, thereby controlling most corporations - including newspapers. Using this control they can suggest which Democrat or Republican candidate the corporation should support, how much his campaign should get, and how much media coverage should be given. The result is public debate on trivial issues for public consumption and government rule without debate on essential matters. The result - thousands of newsletters and a cynical public.

SPEECH FREEDOM? The head of the program on interracial issues at Ausburg College sued Elroy Stock, a major contributor to that college, for emotional cruelty for mailing her a letter advocating racial purity. The suit sought more than $50,000 in damages. Stock admitted sending 100,000 letters to people across the country "to teach people that their racial and religious heritage was being destroyed." Excerpted from Star Tribune, April 21, 1990.

ED: This is the new establishment tactic. While whipping others with suits, they count on the victims being so cowered that they will not retaliate by filing the same kind of suit. Who has not been emotionally damaged by anti-Christian, unscriptural portrayal of interracial marriage and interracial sex on TV, in magazines, and in circulars? This is true emotional cruelty. It would seem that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. The courts are no good if they can't help, but if they can, they should be used to protect against harassment, lawlessness, and filth.

MEDIA COMPETITION: The WSJ, p. A15, May 24, 1990 carried an editorial commenting on the killing of seven Arabs and wounding ten others by one Ami Popper. The article went on to accuse the press of commending itself for promptly condemning the act while in fact they should have reported, "Popper kills 7 Palestinians, Then Army Kills 7 More, Wounds 700." The article goes on to list deliberate atrocities - the breaking of arms and legs of chained prisoners, the killings following outright incitement to violence by government leaders, and the wrist slap punishment following celebrations attended by high government leaders to honor the accused and his anti-Palestinian acts.

ED: Popper isn't news. The fact that both sides of the Palestinian issue are being reported is news. The WSJ has begun to produce its own "pro" and "con" on the Palestinian issue, thereby pre-empting hundreds of newsletters and small papers which have come into existence to report what they, and other media like them, haven't thought necessary to report these last 20 years.

It would seem that the WSJ would do the same about South Africa's "apartheid" problem. They should attack apartheid if they wish, but at the same time report that neighboring Black African states exercise an even more restrictive "apartheid" by refusing Whites the vote, political office, or ownership of property except when extremely proscribed. What about Israeli "apartheid" against Arabs? Why is the "anti-apartheid" campaign directed exclusively against South Africans while it is all right for others?

What about their support of anti-hate legislation directed against the American majority, and, at the same time not informing readers that the majority are victims of interracial assault nine times out of ten?

A cynic might accuse the Journal of being forced to report all the news to pre-empt competition, with an eye to returning to one-sided reporting once the competition was removed.

BANG! In April, 1990, a bomb inside an envelope addressed to "tax thieves" was sent to the IRS, but exploded among other tax returns in a post office in Royal Oak, Michigan. The bomb, a primitive device, was spotted as it began smoking among the other tax returns. One postal employee was injured.

REVISIONISTS are asking why there is no demand for Nuremberg-type trials for war criminals on the heels of another discovery of a mass grave containing some 16,000 German bodies near Bautzen in E. Germany. This is the third such discovery in the last few weeks. In Bulgaria another mass grave has been discovered, compliments of the Soviet occupation forces.

Well Mr. President - why no request for trials to clear the air and punish the criminals? How about it, media? Why no request for a Nuremberg trial? Could it be that such a trial might get out of hand and both media and executive might end up in the docket along with the political commissars of the Red Army, for complicity?

"Moscow ... has begun criminal proceedings against the extreme Pamiat (Memory) Society for inciting racial and national, hatred ... Pamiat calls for the 'de-Zionisation' of Soviet society. ... newspaper reports of attacks against Jews in Kharkov and a violent demonstration by Pamiat against Jewish writers at the Central Writers' Club." Soviet Weekly, reported in Soviet News & Views, March 1990, p. 7.

ED: Pamiat members remember that this group was responsible for furnishing a great many of the Bolshevik leaders who installed communism in the USSR, hence the name Pamiat (Memory).

ROCKETS: Iraq test launched a 48-ton rocket. Baghdad will soon join the dozen or so 3rd World nations to be armed with missiles. Iran and Syria have already deployed ballistic missiles, and last year Saudi Arabia bought missiles from China. Libya is also searching for a missile supplier, if she has not already found one. Argentina is Iraq's partner in rocket development. Brazil and India are also heavily into missile development.

ED: The establishment refuses to allow the West to develop anti- missile missiles, or to install bomb shelters. Both the Soviets and China have both anti-missile missiles and bomb shelters. The population of the U.S. and Western Europe is held hostage for their good behavior.

SOUTH AFRICAN EMBASSY in DC news release of March/April 1990 states that the White government will meet with Nelson Mandela (Xhosa ANC) and Mangosuthu Buthelezi (Zulu). They further state that (1) there can be no place for apartheid, (2) ALL South Africans will be full citizens, and, (3) the rights will be constitutionally protected.

ED: This official S. African news release confirms the plan to turn S.A. over to Black rule on schedule. "Anti-apartheid" talk is misleading. Black tribes don't share, they don't cooperate, they don't work together, they don't integrate - they exterminate! The sole concessions are being made by establishment-installed White leaders who are giving up White property and privileges along with the property and privileges of the Black tribes which are smaller than either the Xhosa (ANC), or Zulu tribes. While Mandela's Xhosa tribe has been tapped to rule, the traditionally fierce Zulu cannot be counted out yet. Unless the White Boers of S. Africa organize and enter the contest, one of the two major Black contending tribes seems sure to emerge as the dominant ruler of South Africa. When that happens it will only be a matter of time for the losers, and if the past history of Africa is a reliable guide - the price tag will be high.

LETTERS

BLACK PROPAGANDA: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Locally we have only 20% Blacks, but 60% of the pictures in the paper are of Blacks. It's as if our people don't count." S. O. - Florida

POTATO-HOLE: "Dear Dick: I was talking to a lady in Richmond who said your wife was a 'potato-hole Woodson.' What is that?" G. W. - Alabama

ED: Old man Woodson was killed in the Indian massacres of 1622. One of his surviving boys was hidden under a tub. The other in a potato-hole. She is descended from the latter, hence, that part of the family are "potato-hole Woodsons."

MONEY BAGS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Did the establishment finance the French Terror or Napoleon - which? J. C. - Florida

ED: Both. The problem wasn't The Terror, or Napoleon who suppressed The Terror, or the Allies which suppressed him, or the Bourbons who replaced him, or Napoleon III who supplanted them. The same establishment financed all.

The thing that made it possible was that Law violation was tolerated by Christians which allowed usury financing of all sides and resulted in the death of millions of men, women, and children.

REACTION: Preferential treatment shown minorities has triggered the formation of White student unions on college campuses. The first one was formed at Temple University in Philadelphia in 1988 and a dozen more are in the process of being organized. (Excerpted from Washington Times, p. 1, April 26, 1990)

KATYN: Soviet News & Views of May 1990, #9 announced Soviet responsibility in the death of 14,793 Polish officers who were shot after surrendering to Soviet Armies in April-May 1940. This is the first such admission by this Soviet- American periodical. The article goes on to say that the guilty parties - police chief Beria, Merkulov, and their aides were punished, all having been arrested and shot in 1953. The article reminds the reader that "Russians always treated Poles as brother Slavs" and that Soviets and Poles stood together at a Katyn memorial service and that military decorations were exchanged. Nothing is said of reparations to the families of German officers and soldiers who were tried and executed for the atrocity, or of trials for Soviet guards and other functionaries who may have been remotely connected with it. Such treatment appears to be reserved for defeated Western Christians.

Chapter 191

HOW TO MEMORIZE THE COMMANDMENTS

Big Ten

I went to the Rocky Mountain Bible Retreat in Colorado to talk about Christian economics. It was crowded with hundreds of families, hundreds and hundreds of teenagers and children. The kids were well behaved and respectful; the people receptive and appreciative. It was fun, more fun than I have had in a long long time. There were almost all the different denominations represented from Baptist, Methodists, to Episcopalian, Church of Christ to Catholics and Mormons, and many in between. It seems that at last Christians have discovered something that they can agree on - obedience to God's Law.

Since I was one of the oldest, on the last day I was asked to give the farewell talk to send everyone on his way. The following was the substance of the talk:

The WORD

There is only one thing that we all believe in common. It is this:

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God (The Laws, statutes, and judgments), and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us."

A king can only be known by what he demands of his subjects. Whether he is fat or thin, short or tall is only of passing interest - when all is said and done, what the king requires of his subjects is how that king is known.

Our king requires obedience to 10 rules. Under these 10 Laws are the statutes which explain them and the judgments which hand out rewards and punishments for obedience or disobedience.

Let's refresh our memories so that when necessary we can repeat the 10 rules with confidence. They are the only rules that will count in the days ahead.

Let's start with rule #3.

3: Think of a merry-go-round that has three little horses going around in circles. Sitting on one horse is someone screaming profanities.

• 3 - DON'T TAKE THE LORD'S NAME IN VAIN:

In other words, don't ask for things forbidden. Don't ask God to overrule his law of gravity so that you can fly from an 18 story building.

• 4 - KEEP THE SABBATH.

That means - rest. Whatever you do - rest! That's what you are supposed to do.

5: Think of your father. He has a whistle in his mouth and is standing like a policeman. His hand is held out telling you to stop. All five fingers are outspread saying Stop. Jacob honored his father Abraham - Esau didn't.

• 5 - HONOR YOUR MOTHER AND YOUR FATHER.

6: Straighten the tail of the number six so that it looks like a hangman's noose.

• 6 - NO MURDER:

This says no premeditated murder - not no killing. God orders the death of those who commit premeditated murder and tolerates no excuses.

7: Turn the seven sideways and it looks like a key that goes into a lock. A key to a bedroom.

• 7 - NO ADULTERY:

This forbids adulteration of the marriage contract, adulterations of business contracts, and includes basic contracts with God such as the Law forbidding hybrid seed and racial intermarriage.

8: Number eight looks like a double oval window with a top part and a bottom part. Think of a hand reaching in through the bottom half and clutching a handful of dollar bills that belong to someone else.

• 8 - NO STEALING:

9: Turn number nine sideways. It looks like a spoon. A measuring spoon.

• 9 - FAIR WEIGHTS AND BALANCES:

No cheating:

10: Look down at your ten toes. They are cold. Reach down and pull up a cover.

• 10 - NO COVETING:

Don't let yourself covet cars, houses, wives, or anything else belonging to your neighbor. It is a cancer that will destroy you and those around you.

1: Hold one finger up - this is number one -

• 1 - LOVE GOD:

There is only one way that God says for people to love him - "If you love me obey my commandments." Anything other than obedience to his LAW is ritual.

2: Visualize a two-masted viking ship. On the front of the ship is a carved dragon. The dragon reminds us:

• 2 - NO IDOLS

No idols. No substitutes for these 10 commandments. No modified list of God's LAWS that omit certain laws that keep you from doing what you want to do. Whatever ultimate authority a person obeys - that is his god. Make sure that your god is the WORD. Nothing else.

The Virginia Reel

The other night, after speaking, I was wringing wet. I walked out into the desert in back of the large meeting hall. In the distance I heard the faint buzz of voices - the sound of a fiddle being tuned. By starlight I walked until at last I looked down from the top of a sand dune onto tennis courts.

Under the floodlights on the tennis courts were lined up hundreds of quiet, foot shuffling, embarrassed grandparents, fathers and mothers, teen-agers, and children. They were waiting for the music to start.

There were two little blond-haired fiddlers, a girl age 8, and a boy age 11. These were not ordinary little fiddlers, these children had won fiddling championships all across the country. They stopped their tuning. An absolute silence fell over the crowd. Then the bows touched the strings and they began to play. The dancers were no longer self-conscious and embarrassed. They moved toward each other and bowed, and moved back again. Faster and faster they went. Everyone in step, everyone in harmony. The whole court had suddenly become alive with flashing whirling bodies.

Everyone was smiling. The bystanders enthusiastically clapped the beat.

The dance had started - everyone was dancing the Virginia Reel.

Our Mission

I can't tell you how much this impressed me. It seemed that this was a preview of our mission as we left and scattered over the nation.

God has given us the music in His WORD.

Like children, we are the fiddlers to play His tune in every city, town, and hamlet of America. It is our job to teach the steps of the dance.

In time, all over the nation, boys and girls, mothers and fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers, will gather.

The fiddlers will start.

And America will begin the dance.

But still, over the wild sounds of the Virginia Reel you will hear the faint strains of "Scotland the Brave" to remind us of our grandfathers who signed the Solemn League and Covenant with each other, to obey God only, and, as a result gave their lives obeying these same Laws, Statutes, and Judgments of our Lord and Master - Jesus Christ.

This is the reason most of us are here in this - His promised land. A land which God himself gave to us. A land which we will not give away to anyone else. God's land, our father's land, our land, and our children's land.

This is the prize that we intend to keep - and rule by His Law - Forever!

UNFILTERED NEWS

CHILDREN PROSTITUTES: My daughter joined the scores going to NY seeking a modeling job. She carried the high hopes of scouts, a picture portfolio, and the right introductions. Her meetings were courteous, and several put her pictures on file, but the standard reply was, "Sorry dear; You should have come last year. This is the year for 'ethnics'." This may have been a put-off, then again, this year may be the year for ethnics.

The single thing that impressed my daughter about New York was the large number of child prostitutes, ages 8 to 12, both boys and girls. Some were picture card beautiful. They would stand on a certain corner and cars would come by and stop, they would get in, and would be back in an hour or two. The policeman who patrolled that corner said that he felt responsible, but there was nothing he could do. If confronted by the law, both child and customer would deny wrong-doing. The thing most disturbing to the policeman was that every couple of weeks one of the children would disappear. He said he didn't know what happened to them, but he felt that they were being kidnaped and killed. My daughter said that this sight was the memory that she will carry of her trip to New York City.

SOLIDARITY: The NY Post noted in June 15, 1990 editorial that Nelson Mandela was scheduled to participate in an act of solidarity with the Puerto Rican nationalists who shot up the US Congress in 1954. Also invited to the ceremony was the Puerto Rican nationalist who attempted to kill President Truman in 1950. They noted that the organizers of Mandela's visit are undermining their enterprise by seating Mandela on a podium with assassins.

CREDIT SCREENING BOOM: "A boom in credit screening follows tight limits on polygraph testing that took effect last year." WSJ, p. B1, May 30, 1990

ED: Personal questions asked by polygraph interrogators caused polygraph banning. Industry is now at the mercy of nicely- dressed, well-educated, personable, unapprehended criminals. Intensive credit screening tries to weed out undesirables. It's better than nothing.

IRS PROTEST: "Kenneth White, VTA president, noted that this year was marked by near-record media criticism of the Internal Revenue Service including TV interviews with the author of an IRS horror-story book, 'A Law Unto Itself, the Geraldo Rivera show, Nightline, Roseanne, Money Magazine and a Richmond Times-Dispatch editorial warning that if serious IRS errors were not corrected 'Congress should consider putting a muzzle on some of the agency's police powers to protect taxpayers.' White added 'all these criticisms however have failed to report that persons in the IRS have actually been in violation of specific federal statutes, including Title 26, US Code, Sec. 7214 (extortion), title 18, USC, Sec. 1001 (false and fraudulent documents); Sec. 241 (conspiracy to injure, oppress and intimidate a citizen's constitutional right) and Sec. 1341 (mail fraud), and should be prosecuted therefor." Virginia Taxpayers Association, P.O. Box 663, Lynchburg, Virginia 24505, May 22, 1990

MANDELA: White House spokesman refused comment on reports linking the CIA to the 1962 arrest of Nelson Mandela. The Atlanta Constitution reported that a senior CIA official claimed credit for information that led to Mandela's arrest. The White House official protested that "Our attitude is one of total support." The source later said "I don't like it when people question our motives in regard to blacks." (Excerpted NY Post, June 13, 1990)

ED: Events have shown that the establishment would feed Mandela and all the rest, Black or White, to the dogs if it served their purpose. Blacks know this. While they don't like Whites, they don't like dancing on the end of the establishment's string either.

SCOTLAND FIRE: "The property of Count Adolf de Spoelberg, was destroyed by fire on Sunday 14 October. ... the house was unoccupied at the time. ... Count de Spoelberg lives at Black Corries Lodge, also in Glen Coe." Scottish World, p. 5, Nov. 1989, 305 Madison Ave. Suite 1166, NY, NY 10165

ED: I know nothing of this event or of Count de Spoelberg. I do know of a talk I had with a member of the Scottish Nationalist Party in Aberdeen in 1983. He complained that all of Scotland's land was in establishment hands. One could only build a house on land rented for 100 years. After that, the house and land reverted back to the land's owner. Most Scots, descendants of freehold Scots, live in walkup flats in the cities. The establishment-owned countryside is almost vacant. The Scot who briefed me said that there was a concerted move to burn houses of absentee owners. If absentee owners had houses and land scattered all over Scotland, and would not part with it at any price, and would not live on what they owned, they would not enjoy the ruins they found when they returned. The fire notice above may have nothing to do with this, but it reminded me of the story, and may also be one more straw in the wind.

ABORTION: The Supreme Court concurs in the banning of the Operation Rescue group blocking access to abortion clinics in NY City. This follows a similar ban in Atlanta, and other cities.

ED: This situation could turn nasty. One side charges restriction of trade. The other charges murder. Rough treatment of protesters by police including dislocated limbs and hair torn out by the roots has thus far not dissuaded them. It is feared that the ban may cause the protesters to go after more vulnerable and less painful targets. ie - clinic personnel. There is no way to protect all of them all of the time, and indeed, some of the police have been charged with turning a blind eye, while others are charged with sadistically enjoying inflicting pain on the protesters.

SEX DISCRIMINATION ABORTION: Already there are reports that children are being aborted according to their sex. Boy babies are preferred and increasingly girl babies are killed.

A head tax was placed on every Roman child at birth to help pay the nations debt. The tax was so heavy that girl children were exposed to the elements to die, leaving the boy children who were presumed to have greater earning power. "The more things change"

GENETIC TESTING: The Wall Street Journal, B1, July 9, 1990, carried an article on genetic testing which states that the carriers of Down's syndrome, sickle-cell anemia, cystic fibrosis, Huntington's disease, hemophilia, Alzheimer's disease and many others, may find employer resistance to hiring in the days ahead because of possible costs to industry.

FLUORIDE: "Fluoride is a cancer-causing agent. Various agencies of the U.S. government, in collusion with the American Dental Association have been working to prevent the results of a study linking fluoride and cancer from becoming public knowledge. In 1977, studies showed that fluoridation was linked to about 10,000 deaths yearly. ... It is also responsible for 40 million cases of arthritis, dental deformity in 8 million people, and overall 10,000 unnecessary deaths every year." Spotlight, Feb. 19, 1990, copied from C.V. Report, #29, NSW, Australia

FOOD BASKET POISON: Iowa farmers were warned for the second time this planting season not to use well water poisoned by nitrate fertilizer. It causes blue baby syndrome. (Excerpted from the WSJ, p. 1, May 30, 1990.)

PAMYAT: "A Pamyat leader asserted recently, those 'hidden Jews,' seeking to attack Russian culture from the inside are the nation's most dangerous enemies. ... Economic collapse seems imminent ... We listened ... to fears of famine ... Russians ... desire to find a scapegoat. Inevitably, the old belief in the Jew as the source of the Russians' troubles has re-emerged. ... Seemingly sophisticated and sensible persons asserted that Jews had been responsible for the terror-famine in the Ukraine ... That Lazar Kaganovich, a member of Stalin's Politburo, was a Jew proved the Jews' guilt.

"A leading figure ... Igor Shafarevich, a close friend of Alexander Solzhenitsyn ... has popularized the term 'Russophobe' as a codeword for Jew. ...

"Valentin Rasputin ... just appointed to Mr. Gorbachev's Presidential Council, stated that the Jews 'killed God' and and were responsible for the October Revolution and the mass terror that followed it. (New York Times Magazine, Jan. 28) ... anyone who opposes these views is condemned as a Jew whether or not he is Jewish. ...

"Things are falling apart inside the Soviet Union ... let us hope that the intended victims are able to escape." [Excerpted letter to editor New York Times, May 27, 1990.]

ED: It is naive to think that all of a sudden certain Soviet writers are allowed to turn anti-Semitic. Why haven't certain U.S. writers suddenly turned anti-Semitic? Simple. In the U.S. it is not allowed. In the Soviet Union it is. There it is now state policy.

The Soviet banking system, the Gosbank, is a virtual carbon copy of its American Federal Reserve counterpart. It, too, receives its orders from the overall World Usury System. The Soviet Gosbank rules the USSR under the World Usury System just as the FR rules the U.S.. Anti-Semitism is tolerated because the Gosbank has received orders to that effect. It, in turn, instructs the Soviet government to use its press monopoly to publish the required articles.

The question is - WHY? Why is anti-Semitism state policy in the USSR after 70 years of suppression. Could it be that the Zionists want new colonists for the Israeli state? Possibly. To provide new colonists for the U.S.? Maybe. But, certain suspicious Soviet minds believe that after the Russophobes are gone, an unpleasant surprise might descend on the Russians who remain.

ABC BREAKTHROUGH: Host Sam Donaldson of ABC featured as guest Fred A. Leuchter on "Prime Time Live." Leuchter was introduced as the world's foremost expert on execution methods including gassing. Readers will remember that the Leuchter Report was an on-the-spot investigation of the Nazi concentration camp's so-called gas chambers where millions of Jews are supposed to have been murdered. The investigation found no trace of poison gas. Holocaust critics have long maintained that the Holocaust was actually a holohoax. Just as the Katyn massacre of Poles, complete with fake pictures, is no longer blamed on the Germans, but the Soviets. The Holocaust may soon be accepted as a wartime tale told once too often. ABC spokesmen may be trying to bail out while they can.

But while one story is ending another 50 year old atrocity has come to light. The recent book, Other Losses, reveals that there were in fact death camps. It is charged that a million German POWs died in American and French camps after the war was over. The evidence offered is convincing. Investigations should be conducted immediately and if the charges prove true, those responsible should be punished.

HOMOSEXUALS: Alfred Kinsey reported that 9% were exclusively homosexual. Tom Smith, sociologist at the U. of Chicago, did a survey which shows 5-6% bisexual with only 1% exclusively homosexual. Monthly Aids Update, June 1990, p. 8, Box 14488, Augusta, GA 30919.

RIGHT WING VIOLENCE: "Escalating right-wing violence threatens to postpone negotiations between the ruling National Party and the ANC ... leading to black majority rule." Detroit Free Press, p. 3a, May 30, 1990.

ED: The media doesn't state what constitutes "right wing." More S. African Blacks are opposed to Mandela's Xhosa tribe ruling South Africa than there are Whites opposed. The present deaths are the result of the Xhosa Black vs. Zulu Black struggle for supremacy. Little of the background is reported by America's anglophobe media.

CHRISTIAN BUYERS: Freddy Jackson of Fairfax, Virginia has opened a "Christian Members Buying Plan." The Anglophobe ACLU and ADL say that Brown Lincoln-Mercury discriminates against non-Christians. Virginia's Attorney General said that the plan apparently did not violate state or local law. Jackson admits business has improved.

Three years ago, In Pensacola, Florida, Jerry Harrison, an Exxon station owner, put up a sign reading, "For Christians Only: 10% discount on labor." The ADL complained to Exxon, and the company asked Mr. Harrison to take the sign down. Mr. Harrison removed his original sign but replaced it with "10% discount For Those whom Jesus Loves." (Reported in the NY Times, May 27, 1990, p. 23.)

WATERING HOLE: In parts of the Sahara, natives, to take deer meat with little effort, bait them by uncovering ground springs. Deer congregate at the uncovered water hole. The spring is then poisoned and the deer harvested.

Conservatives, tired of media lies, misstatements, and blackouts, travel far to find acceptable alternate media. Alarmed at the defection, the establishment has launched a number of slick pseudo-conservative periodicals. Printing conservative news available nowhere else, backed by superior financing, these organs often offer a product containing more news for the money. They wean away conservative readers. In two or three years, after having won their confidence, they gradually poison the water by introducing self-hate to poison the reader's mind against his own people.

Beware the poisoned spring. Avoid drinking at a waterhole that has a strange taste or strange tracks around it.

BOYCOTT: Five years ago we predicted that anti-communist El Salvador would remain under the gun for not quietly rolling over and turning the wealth of the nation over to the communists.

The Daily News of June 20, 1990 reports that Red Apple and Gristedes supermarkets will remove Folger's Coffee from their shelves for two months because Folger's buys 2% of their coffee in El Salvador, and that nation is accused by the liberal press of supporting right-wing death squads. Left-wing death squads were not mentioned.

PASSION PLAY: "This year the traditional German passion play at Oberammergau, Germany has been revised: There have been "40 pages describing major changes in costume, sets, and text. The American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League, and the National Conference of Christians and Jews were instrumental in removing images ... considered anti-Semitic. ... What the playgoer can expect this year is a play that emphasizes Jesus' Jewishness and that of his followers. ... The retention of the 'blood curse' is very problematic ... that's the phrase that says 'his blood' meaning the blood of Jesus - 'be on us, and on our children.' That has been taken to mean that the Jews are cursed ... The Bible verse is quoted only once in this year's drama ... and only on the condition that a five-page explanation stating it does not apply to only one race and summarizing its role in perpetuating anti-Semitism be printed in the text which playgoers purchase to follow the German-language play." [Excerpted from NY Times June 3, 1990.

Chapter 192

DATING CAN BE WRONG

by

Dr. Ed Payne, Reflections On Medicine Newsletter, Box 4009, Martinez, GA 30917.
March 1990. Copied with permission.

"There are two primary relationships between men and women ... marriage and the brother-sister relationship ...

"Dating is neither one nor the other. The determining factor about dating is its purpose. The intimacy of dating advances it beyond the brother-sister relationship, so the purpose relates to marriage ...

"You may object that the dating relationship can remain on the ... brother-sister level ... after two people 'break-up' ... Such belief ... shows a naive understanding of human nature. Friendships, if they have any substance at all, grow and develop. Between a male and a female it ... eventually generates sexual attraction ... Countless testimonies illustrate this fact. ...

"The progression may be one sided ... The only safe assumption is that all men and women must avoid as much as possible, any situation in which one man and one woman are alone together or work together on a regular basis. ...

"All should seek to prevent ... the 'natural' result of a man and woman who are alone together, especially on repeated occasions. ... 'Going steady', being 'pinned', or some commitment other than engagement is blatantly out of place Only two outcomes are possible: They eventually marry, or they break up. Most do not marry ... Any pledge ... short of engagement (which should have virtually the same commitment as marriage) is a mockery ...

"The total intimacy of marriage cannot be approached in dating. Problem-solving in this relationship does not have the pressure or the constancy of marriage. Being comfortable with, and being intimate, are entirely different relationships. And, social skills can be learned in ways other than dating.

"The negatives of dating are considerable. Two young people are placed alone together, usually with long periods of unstructured time. After going together regularly, they develop a strong affection for each other. It is only natural that this affection be demonstrated by physical contact. The more time alone, the more opportunity to express these affections.¹1

1 If young women knew just how easily and strongly young men are aroused, they might be much more discreet and careful!

"To place two young people alone on a regular basis ... is to invite disaster, one of which may be unintended pregnancy. That is not, however the only possible disaster. Sexual intimacies in dating will be a serious problem for future spouses.² ...

"Because dating carries such peer pressure, alternatives must be sought. Group activities must always be the pattern. Pairing off, on the way to or from activities should be discouraged and prohibited ... The dangers of dating must be taught in a way that clearly presents personal vulnerability ...

"Youth are generally segregated from adults. Attempts should be made to include both groups in various activities ... everything from 'Trivial Pursuit' to 'square dancing' ... Most important would be the agreement of a core group of parents who see the dangers of dating and resolve to minimize the problems. Then, the 'everyone else is doing it' carries no weight for the teen-ager. ...

"There is little of sound value in dating ... there are ... some potentially severe problems. A peer group of 'non-daters' would decrease the pressure to date. Parents would have to provide the social activities that seem necessary to keep young people occupied and interested.

"When should dating begin? ... it should not begin until a person decides that he or she does not have the gift of celibacy and that his or her situation is more or less compatible with marriage (regular job, most or all education finished, a job that does not require frequent travel, etc.) Dating should be the final stages to get to know some one better in order to consider marriage.

"Complications of dating are more prevalent than they should be. Parents of teen-agers and young adults are not fully aware of this problem. ... We need ... to give a message to the world that dating and its problems are avoidable. Illegitimate pregnancies that could end in abortion rarely occur within chance acquaintances but do occur among those who date regularly.

"Pro-life people propose an incomplete answer to the problem of illegitimate pregnancies by legislative action and even crisis pregnancy centers when they fail to acknowledge and teach prevention, that is, the problems and evils of dating. Sadly, they often allow the possibilities of illegitimate pregnancy within their own families.

"We will have little impact on the world until the change begins with us.

ED: I agree 100% with Dr. Payne. Raising six children has shown me that nothing good can result from dating until the child has reached maturity and is ready, willing, and able to marry. That means - able to take on the responsibilities of an adult. It's time to stop the kids from playing house and allow "grown-up marriages", complete with its responsibilities and privileges.

Anything else is playing with fire.

COMMUNISM'S COLLAPSE

by Ernst Zundel, Canada's first thought prisoner.

"Communism collapsed chiefly because it became a victim of its anti-nature policy of 'genocide against the talented ones.' Communism repressed and killed the independent thinkers and innovators because they instinctively knew that they would become dangerous to the ruling gangster oligarchy.

"Those who were shot, tortured, or worked to death or broken spiritually or physically did not and could not reproduce! ... What is missing is the offspring of the intelligent, the creative, the ruling elite. No amount of western aid, money or technology can bridge that gap. ...

"The building of elites is a very slow and tedious process that spans centuries. Soviet bullets snuffed out the lives of millions in split seconds that had taken nature generations to build.

"Now nature confronts the same murderous system with the results of its criminal policy. ..." Zundel Report, August 3, 1990

UNFILTERED NEWS

MANDELA: According to the communist Peoples Daily World for May 31st, Mandela has just been awarded the 1990 Lenin Peace prize.

NEW ZEALAND: After nationalizing the phone, petroleum, steel, and insurance companies belonging to private individuals who had earlier refused to sell, the confiscating government now is selling these same companies to financiers who earlier wanted to buy them but couldn't. This piracy is called "privatization" and is standard operating procedure when the government is bought and paid for and is the enforcing arm of special interests.

ARGENTINA: Argentina's stateowned telephone compnay was recently "privatized". Now, all eyes are on the state owned oil and gas monopoly confiscated earlier from private owners as they in turn are being prepared to be "privatized" to others than their original owners.

NOREIGA: According to the NY Post of June 9, 1990, a Miami federal judge dismissed Noriega's challenge to US jurisdiction, his claims that he couldn't be prosecuted for activities outside the US, and, as a head of state that he had immunity for his actions.

ED: The U.S. is making the scumbag Noreiga look like a GOOD guy. The U.S. kidnaped him - a foreign national - after breaking down the front door of his country and killing hundreds of innocent men, women, and children. The U.S. then installed its own puppet governement. Now, Noriega has been taken out of his own country to a foreign land (the U.S.) and under foreign laws is being tried before a kangaroo court where conviction and punishment is certain. This makes Noreiga's drug hustling look like the acts of a boy scout, assuming, of course, that the U.S. isn't lying about this, too.

NOTE: Today's news reports that the drug charge is being dropped and is being replaced by "money laundering". How about "littering" or "reckless driving"?

DISARMING? Defense secretary Cheney ordered the AF to remove all short-range nuclear missiles from alert status because they might accidentally explode. This affects about 1000 missiles on three types of intercontinental bombers. Safety concerns center on the danger that the missiles contain highly volatile rocket fuel which could catch fire and possibly explode scattering plutonium. Other warheads including the types used on the Trident missile and nuclear artillery shells based in Europe are under review. NY Post, p. 2, 6/9/90

ED: This is an addition to the recent unilateral disarmament treaties. What will the U.S. fight with if the USSR gets back on her feet and decides that the U.S. is the bad guy after all? What if there is another "bad guy" out there?

MOSQUE: A $50 million mosque with a 136 foot minaret will be finished by year end to serve New York's swelling Moslem population. NY News, March 28, 1990.

MEDIA REPORTING: The announcer said, "In S. Africa, a white supremacist yesterday stated that that there may be increased violence." Then in the next breath: "Two bombs went off killing two Blacks and wounding others." The announcer linked by association the events to condemn Whites. "Supremacist" is an anti-White slur. Slander and vilification follow. The audience is supposed to assume that Whites had set the bombs which killed the Blacks instead of the more rational assumption that the deadly feuding between the Black Xhosas and Zulus is more likely to blame. Whites defending themselves would logically direct their attention against renegades and false witnesses instead of Blacks who are only doing what they are encouraged to do by the establishment.

HAS IT STARTED?: Last year one of my son's college friends was driving through Roanoke with one of his friends. They stopped at a traffic light. A carload of Blacks, accompanied by a lone White, drove up, pulled them out of their car and beat them with steel reinforcing rods and baseball bats. Their faces carry the scars.

This last weekend, another of my son's friends with four companions, while in D.C. to see the museums, were set upon by three carloads of Blacks and severely beaten. All required emergency room treatment. Neither of these two incidents was reported by the media.

At Virginia Beach, small groups of Whites are set upon with such frequency by mobs of Blacks that the media has been forced to report it. It is almost a daily affair. The merchants complain that it is bad for business.

Nine out of ten interracial attacks are strangers attacking Whites. Whites are the most gentle race in the world. Their crime rate is among the lowest, if not the lowest. Still, a venomous Saxophobe media portrays them as hate filled and the cause of every confrontation. "Hate Laws" are being passed to punish them if they accuse anyone of mistreating them.

GRAVEYARD NAMES: "The Israeli military has cut back on medical care to Palestinians to such an extent that Arabs are suffering adverse effects and in some cases, death. ... dying Arabs have been turned away from the hospital door. ... horrified Israeli doctors .. have begun to give the Palestinians the names of dead Jewish patients." Cutting Edge.

TUTU: Bishop Tutu, well known South African Black Anglican Bishop, member of Africa's Xhosa tribe, recently met with Jewish leaders in Cincinnati to "patch up differences." Tutu, like Joseph Mandella, won their displeasure by favoring a separate homeland for Palestinian Arabs. The

S. African Xhosa organization, the ANC, has black leaders friendly to Arab causes. But, the ANC has a Jewish leader, Joe Slovo, who is not. Thus, the U.S. backs pro-Arab ANC Xhosas, the Arabs throw rocks at Jews, the Jews attack black ANC Xhosa leaders who have a Jewish head for their pro-Palestinian stand. The White S. African leader deClerk has deserted his white constituents to ally himself with the Xhosas. The S. African Whites he abandoned are becoming friendly with the Zulus. The Zulus and the Xhosas are killing each other at an astonishing rate. The question foremost in the State Departments mind is simply - how can they turn South Africa over to the communists by getting a Black/White race war started if they can't get all this mess sorted out and stop the Blacks from killing each other? Things are tough all over.

THE PRICE: Articles are appearing more and more frequently in the NY papers about children who refuse to go to school because of fear of assault, rape, and murder. Children also fear walking the streets and the newspaper stories are full of incidents of kidnapping and murder. It appears that the replacement of Christian Law with Lawless statutes is not working.³

LAW: The wholesale repeal of Christian Law is making the country uninhabitable for Christians. A jury without the "Law in their hearts" cannot be expected to dispense justice. Strangers are certain to misrule. The choice will soon be -

³ "If ye will not ... do all these commandments; I also will do this unto you; they that hate you shall reign over you ... I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children ... And I will make your cities waste." Lev 26:14-35

Law or Lawlessness. Survival or extinction. It will be the day of the warrior.

MARCOS: Implicit in Washington's removal of the Marcos family from the Philippines was a promise not to subject Ferdinand and Imelda Marcos to criminal prosecution. The U.S. once again lied.

CONSERVATIVE ADVICE: A conservative newsletter recently copied the advice given to successful left wing organizations years ago and passed it on to its own supporters:

"No more parades, please. Six or seven recently attracted publicity and caused their own side to be ridiculed. When the foe cannot see you, does not know what you are doing, and frightens itself with its own imagination, you are effective. Unseen, invisible, silent. It must either be that again or the flag should go back into the glass case in the museum where it can be respected in memories. Tight small cells ... infiltrating every other organization around ... quietly doing their work of altering such groups' courses to suit themselves and their own objectives." From The Mountain, June 26, 1990

LOOKING ON: Ed Koch, colorful Jewish ex-mayor of NY City, in his NY Times article of March 18, 1990, took Black muslim leader Farrakhan to task for Farrikhan saying that he had been informed by a Jewish film producer that there was a Jewish conspiracy to achieve world dominance.

This is not more quibbling between Jews and Blacks. It is basically Islamic law vs. Talmudic law. Any agreement between the two will be temporary and passing. The differences that remain are basic and permanent. Each contestant would like to use the other for his own ends, but each knows that in the end there can be no compromise.

POET: Israeli-Arab poet, Shafik Habib, was placed under house arrest to await trial for publishing poems about the Palestinian uprising. NY Post, p9, June 20, 1990.

LAVENDER LIGHTS: It was planned for the Empire State Building to be decked out with lavender lights to honor homosexuals, both male and female, on June 22-24.

HOMOS: "Jim Johnson ... offers a chilling review of the 'gay' nineties ... once civil rights demands are met it will be against the law to say anything against homosexual activity by anyone because that will be a crime of hate. To teach anything other than accepted homosexual theology will result in the loss of nonprofit tax exemption." The New American, p. 44, July 30, 1990.

FBI GAY: A gay FBI agent in San Francisco has sued the FBI charging that it irrationally bans homosexuals and plans to fire him. The man had done counter-intelligence work and wishes to resume his job.

GAY STUDDS: Rep. Gerry Studds, publicly confessed homosexual and Massachusetts member of congress, was beaten on a Washington street corner by two men. They knocked him to the ground and punched and kicked him. NY Post, p. 11, June 9, 1990.

WARFARE EVOLVES: Kifah Ghalib, Palestinian guerilla unit leader, was shot shortly after midnight in his own Palestinian Lebanon refugee camp by assassins armed with silencer-equipped pistols. News, Aug 5, 1990, Lynchburg, VA.

DISABEDIENCE: The New Testament has been translated into Mongolian.

RKH: (1) "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs." Mathew 7:6, (2) "It is not meet to take the childrens' bread, and to cast it to dogs." Math 15:24, (3) "There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing." Lev. 22:10, (4) "When the tabernacle is to be pitched ... the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death." No 1:51, (5) "These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not unto the way of the Gentiles, and unto any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Math 10:5,6.

The translator, an Englishman, has a Mongolian wife. "From the lawless comes lawlessness."

"OUTING": The homosexual magazine Outweek identifies homosexuals who would prefer to remain hidden. The theory is that it is great to be gay - so why hide it? The disclosure has stirred up a hornets' nest as Fran Lebowitz, author of two books, complains, "To me, this is a bunch of Jews lining up other Jews to go to a concentration camp." NY Post, p. 6, June 19, 1989.

ISLAMIC UNITY: "Iran's spiritual leader called the stationing of US forces in Saudi Arabia an 'insult' to the Moslem people of that country." Investor's Daily, p. 1, Aug 16, 1990

ED: Iran is the recent enemy of Iraq.

RESTORED?: In the Soviet Union it has been suggested that the long list of Soviet exiles being restored to rights of citizenship and good graces include Alexander Solzhenitsyn.

LENIN: The Soviet communist party appealed to the Soviet people to stop vandalism on statues of Lenin, founder of the Soviet union. Monuments have been destroyed in dozens of town while in some of the Soviet republics the statues are being dismantled by legislative decree.

TRUCE OF THE BEAR:

"When he stands up as pleading, in wavering, man- brute guise,

"When he veils the hate and cunning of his little swinish eyes,

"When he shows as seeking quarter, with paws like hands in prayer, "That is the time of the peril - the time of the Truce of the Bear."

CIGARETTES: "NJ Supreme Court ruled that warnings on cigarette packs don't protect tobacco companies from liability lawsuits." WSJ, 7/27/90

HARD-LINERS: "American communists are taking a dim view of the increasing number of Soviet revelations about genocide and other crimes ... the Communist Party Peoples Daily World, suggests that such disclosures ... only serve to hurt the cause of international socialism." The New American, p. 44, July 30, 1990.

EQUAL: "The Ohio Civil Rights Commission has determined that city of Cincinnati hiring practices violate state affirmative-action guidelines ... The city's affirmative-action goal is to reduce the number of white males to 38.6% of the work force. The Cincinnati Inquirer, D5, July 4, 1990.

SOVIET NEWS & VIEWS: The July issue of this monthly communist magazine will be its last. I'm sorry to see it go. It was slanted to Red views, but was by far more truthful and straightforward than the reporting of the average establishment paper in the U.S.

WHY FIGHT IRAQ

The letters congratulating War Cycles/Peace Cycles for its 1985 projection that the next place of world conflict would be Islam and South Africa are appreciated but unmerited. That's the way the system works.

Here is the scenario:

In March 1965, twenty years before WC/PC was published, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace published its report, Apartheid and the United Nations. In this report it was recommended that the UN should go to war with South Africa.¹

¹ Please note the name of the report. It may better have been entitled in liberal-speak "Peace Group Opts for War," or "The Fight For Peace".

The report said,

"We shall analyze three general categories of action, a show of force, a naval and air blockade and direct military intervention. We shall also look briefly at what might be involved for any military forces being utilized by the United Nations in a period of direct UN rule."

The blockade envisioned required 50 to 60 warships including destroyers, submarines, three to five aircraft carriers with suitable support vessels, and 300 aircraft of fighter and reconnaissance capability.

Direct intervention and the conquest of S. Africa required another 200 frontline aircraft, 200 transport planes, 30,000 men for amphibious assault, 3,000 men for air assault, a reserve of 300 more planes, 60,000 more troops, and 117 additional warships and transport vessels.

Casualties would be between 19,000 and 38,000 killed and wounded. This does not include the S. Africans killed or wounded.

In politics nothing happens by accident. Things are planned - they are made to happen. The invasion plans against South Africa were formulated in 1965 at the very time that South Africa was the stalwart ally and friend of the United States and the West, and the media darling.

Evil Genius

Everyone believes that somewhere an evil genius lurks. The someone who plans wars, massacres, and death camps, sometimes twenty or thirty years in advance. Stories, such as the one above, lend credence to that view. To calmly plot a war that is to take place at a time in the distant future requires a truly homicidal type who will hire like-minded people to work for him. People with no conscience at all.

People can never agree on his identity. He is never mentioned by the media. His (or her) crimes are studiously overlooked by the pulpits, ignored by politicians, and remains invisible to exposé newsletter writers who wish to avoid trouble by collaborating, and perhaps getting a share of whatever there is.

One Dollar Gift

This lending business is important. If one understands this - no other explanation for South Africa or Iraq is really necessary.

Ever stop to think why banks have insisted that state legislatures pass laws so that unclaimed accounts containing $1 that grand-dad set up for his grand-daughter when she was born will revert to the state after ten or fifteen years? We are told that it's because of the paper work, or, because there are starving Eskimos at the north pole who can use that dollar to buy food. But, is that the real reason? No indeed! Not a lick of truth to it. Let me tell you the real story, although it's sort of like locking the barn door after the horse is out - and I mean the horse is really out. The following is one explanation about how it all started.

A Quarter For The Kid

In 1655, Oliver Cromwell let the international bankers into England. They had been banned since 1290, but they promised to be good and do him a favor by lending him a few thousand pounds at 10% for letting them in. He needed the money, so he did. They didn't even require immediate repayment. "Regular fellows" - easy to work with.

The tale goes that while Cromwell was in the bank one day making out a money order for some of his relatives in America, he opened a "savings" account, as an afterthought, for his little niece Prudence. This account paid a guaranteed 10%. Not being a big spender with his own money, he put a quarter in it and sent the pass book to her mother to keep for her until she grew up and went to college or something. It's the thought that counts!

Like little girls the world over, little Prudence was not impressed with 25¢, especially in a bank account over in England where she couldn't get it to buy candy or something. So, she put the passbook in a secret drawer in her dresser and forgot it. Dressers back then had secret drawers.

In 1990, the dresser was a real antique and was still around. Everyone said it came over in the Mayflower.²

Anyway, when she was eight years old little Prudence (this was little Prudence 12th) was fooling around in the dresser and discovered the secret drawer holding the passbook belonging to her ancestor.

Not much money, but she took it down to the bank to get the quarter for a jaw breaker.

The teller smiled when he saw 25¢ deposit made back in 1655 and indulgently took it over to the machine to automatically compute the interest. The machine jammed.

2 If all the furniture that is said to have come over in the Mayflower was shipped back to Europe it would take an 80,000 ton Queen Mary three trips to get it all back.

She called the bank manager, Joe, who came over and he too jammed the machine when he tried to compute the totals. Joe then sat down and did some fast computation with the bank's personal computer, and what he saw was enough.

He then called little Prudence XII over and said to her - "Little girl, you are the queen of the world. The banking system, of which this bank is part, owes you;

$18,386,096,562,268.61

That's $18 TRILLION DOLLARS plus a few odd hundred billion, and thats more than the world's worth."

To show that he really knew what he was doing he continued, banker style, not knowing when to quit:

"The annual interest comes to $1,838,609,656,276.86, or, if you prefer, $5,037,286,729.53 a day. That's FIVE BILLION DOLLARS and change. This is what interest on 25¢ will do for you if you keep it in the bank long enough."

Little Prudence clapped her hands. She always wanted to be queen of the world.

Not knowing much about money, little Prudence hired Joe the bank manager to be her agent, or actually, prime minister, since a queen needs a prime minister to run things for her. She played in the yard of her home and he ran the world for her and explained things to her that she didn't understand. Queens don't have to understand everything, you know.

Putting Others To Work

One day Joe went to see little Prudence and while they were playing on her see-saw Joe explained that they would have to get the president of the United States to go to war against somebody. Little Prudence was only eight and didn't understand about such things, so Joe explained that the country was running out of money.

Little Prudence wanted to know why they didn't use some of her's. She had more than $18 trillion dollars. Joe patiently explained that the $18 trillion was the money that the banks and the people owed her. If they had money - they paid her. If they didn't have money they couldn't pay her, and then she wouldn't have any money either.

Little Prudence then said that since the U.S. government owed her a lot of money, and since most of the politicians worked for her,³ why couldn't she just tell them to make some money and give it to everyone who needed it - like herself, Joe, and some other nice people.

Again, Joe patiently explained that one of the reasons they wanted to go to war was to provide an excuse for the government to borrow money from her banks - not to make money themselves - if they did, the government and the people wouldn't need her banks any more. If they didn't need her banks, then she wouldn't be queen and everyone wouldn't work for her, and Joe wouldn't be able to take care of her banking business and give her extra candy when her mother wasn't looking. That was one of the main reasons they were paying politicians - to keep the country from printing its own money which would keep her from being queen and put Joe out of a job.

Even little Prudence could see the wisdom of not letting the government make money if it meant that they wouldn't need her banks to lend them money and she wouldn't be queen. She liked being queen. Joe like being assistant queen, or manager, or prime minister - whatever.

3 "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7

Where Money Comes From

Little Prudence then wanted to know that if she was the richest person in the world, but only had IOU's and no money; and if the banks she owned also owned lots of IOU's but no money, where did money come from and where did it go?

"People try to pay off their IOUs so they don't owe any money and they can't do it.

"The reason they can't do it is because our banks lend $10 and make borrowers repay $11. Once they pay the $10, that pays off part of the debt⁴ and then they have no more money, BUT, still owe $1. AND, since they now have no money they must come back to our banks and mortgage more and more property to borrow again and again so their debt gets bigger and bigger and when they run out of property to mortgage, we foreclose and take everything they've got. The people can never pay it off and escape. Neat, huh?

"Their IOU's and their foreclosed property are why you are so rich. You own all the people who owe you. You own them all, and in time you will own all their property. The money isn't important - except when you have to buy something to eat - like now."

4 A $10 payment cancels a $10 IOU, and - poof! Both $10 and the $10 IOU disappear - leaving the $1 debt and no money to pay it.

To a banker the answer was simple. Actually, the little queen didn't understand a word of it. No one ever does understand what a banker is saying. But she knew this much:

"That doesn't sound very honest to me."

Joe, stung to the quick, replied:

"So, it's not honest - it's legal!"

"We've paid good hard earned money to politicians to make it legal, and now they TAX everyone who says it's NOT legal. How's that! Even preachers agree that it's legal. No one ever says one word against it.⁵ We are strictly legal, and that makes us honest. The government says so, the courts say so, and we've got sheriffs and soldiers to make it stick. We're protected all around."

Little Pru didn't quite understand this either. But if Joe said so, and he was a banker and made his living doing this sort of thing, it must be so.

"Well Joe, about this war, why do we need a war."

"To make people borrow money into existence when they don't want to borrow - money that everyone needs." Joe explained.

"The people are already in debt. They don't have any more debt free houses, factories, or land. They can't bring us deeds to debt free property so that they can borrow new money into existence. What we MUST have are new debt free borrowers. If we can get a war started, the government can borrow money into existence by issuing their own IOU bonds. That helps, but the country we go to war with - THEY will have to go to their own banks to borrow money into

5 "Hath given forth upon usury ... shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him." Ezek 18:13 existence to buy guns and ships and planes to defend themselves - and you own those banks, too. After all, no one questions where money comes from."

"Well, if you say so." Said little Prudence. With whom should we go to war?"

"Well, Japan, Germany, Korea, Vietnam, Grenada, Afghanistan and Panama have already been used. How about South Africa and Iraq. They are mostly debt-free. They have debt-free property to mortgage and are able to borrow a lot of money into existence to keep the world money system supplied with money for a long time. If we work it right, like Vietnam, we can string it out 20 years or more. After all, the plans were made back in 1965 and are still good. It will give us the money we need to buy you a swingset to go with this see-saw. The new swingsets are a lot more comfortable."

"Little Pru clapped her hands in glee.

Conclusion

So you see - there is an evil genius - an evil genius that plans to envelop the world in wars, death, and destruction.

The question - who is it?

Is it

(1) the Carnegie crew who planned the S. African invasion so many years ago, is it

(2) Joe the banker, whom people secretly suspect is part of a Jewish conspiracy? Is it

(3) little Pru, the eight year old secret ruler of the world? Is it

(4) the dastardly Oliver Cromwell who started this whole mess with his 25¢ gift at 10% interest? OR, maybe - just maybe - could it be

(5) the system of interest itself?

Until people find the correct answer among the five suspects, and do something about it, we can confidently expect that liberation wars against the evil South Africas and Iraqs of the world to force them to borrow money into existence will continue indefinitely. Or, until the Johnnies, Fritz's, Abduls, and Gooks who fight these wars are all used up - whichever comes first.

As Joe explained to Little Prudence,

"Read my lips, we're strictly legal, we're right, and we've got to look at the bright side. At least, for now, money is once again beginning to be borrowed into existence. Happy days are here again for as long as they last, and you get your swingset!

"Oh Goody!" said little Prudence, as she thought of her new swingset. "I always wanted a new swingset."

Chapter 194

THE STING

Blackmail

Industrial spying, international espionage, and political arm-twisting are done by securing tractable political allies, recruiting compliant agents, securing the services of submissive employees in the camp of the competition.

The key word - one that is never spoken in polite Western society is - "blackmail". Brought to a high art in Communist countries, half the population is blackmailed to make them inform against the other half. In the West, much of the population is "persuaded" in the same manner to cooperate with authorities.

Stripped of decorative verbiage, most corporate, political, and government persuasion is accomplished by blackmail, and blackmail is blackmail the world over. The essence of blackmail is to catch someone violating a social taboo, or catch or trick someone into violating a government statute that carries a hefty penalty - and withhold punishment in exchange for co-operation. It is usually very inexpensive and highly efficient.

I was a competition pistol shooter in the service. I still enjoy the excitement of standing in a line of shooters banging at targets, hearing the sound, smelling the powder, and enjoying the camaraderie. This has been a lifelong interest of mine, although the youngsters nowadays beat me badly.

Recently, I overheard a local politician talking to a friend. The politician had been offered a free .45 automatic pistol by a well-wisher who lived out of state. He was delighted. I know the feeling. Each .45 pistol is different. Different trigger squeeze, different patterns at different ranges - different all around. Pistols have personalities of their own.

He expressed his pleasure to a fellow shooter who was a gun shop owner. The gun shop owner was appalled! He said that that would be committing a felony to receive the gift in the mail from out of state.

The politician didn't know that! Neither did I.

To be legal the person making the gift had to send it to a registered gun dealer in Virginia who would register the gift and then turn it over to the one it was supposed to go to. Receiving it directly from the sender would put the one receiving it in deep trouble with federal authorities.

Recruiting Informants

Another friend, a law enforcement officer, told me that the gift offer had the appearance of being a routine sting operation. "Routine" in that such things were going on all the time. He went on to say that stings are constantly in progress and are directed at anyone who may be of some future use to the establishment.

It may come as a surprise, but it seems that stings at times are directed at those who support the establishment as well as those who oppose its policies. ALL people are fodder for its machine. The establishment has no "friends" - only compliant servants - and anti-establishment people are caught and used to report on groups that keep secrets from the establishment, or merely to set the stage to use the organizations for establishment purposes. This last is especially effective when officer(s) of targeted groups can be compromised.

Congressmen, the leaders of the country, are common targets. Unable to stand ANY adverse publicity, many can be easily caught and instantly transformed into avid supporters of key establishment policy to escape exposure and resulting media smear and prison. A sting involving supposed Arab sheiks showed how easy it is to trap large numbers of them at one time. Holdouts, such as Congressman Hanson, go straight to jail. The few, like Senator McCarthy, who can't be caught in wrongdoing, had to be blitzed by a full media campaign. It would have been far simpler if they could have been neutralized by being photographed with a prostitute, taking a payoff, or dealing dope, or helping a "friend" with an illegal favor.

Farm Loan Sting

Once before, during the farm protests in 1985, a lawyer "friend" from out of state frantically called saying that I had to drop everything and go to Denver. There multi-billion Arab oil money men were meeting with American farmers to make no-interest loans just to help fight the present Federal Reserve monopoly of usury lending.

Fascinated by billions of dollars, and knowing nothing about Islamic no-interest money lending, I was eager to learn about the concept. However, three decades of being sold economic packages by the best in the business caused me to sense something that didn't ring true. At the last minute I backed out. Those who didn't were mostly farmers unsophisticated in economic matters who are still in prison. It was an anti-farm leader sting and it worked wonderfully well. Ever wonder why there was no farm protest as farmers were losing their farms as in former years? Many of the leaders were in jail. The lawyer still touches down with me on occasion. He's just doing his job. I wonder what they've got on him?

Judging by my own experience, it must be easy to persuade targeted people to violate some statute they know nothing about. Once they have broken the law they may then be given a choice - if they are the kind who can be persuaded to be cooperative.¹

The Handler

An-FBI agent (and his counterpart in other Federal agencies) is portrayed as a crisp clean cut chap whose job it is to uphold the laws of the country.

Actually, most of his time is spent recruiting (if you want to call it that), handling, training, and directing a vast army of blackmailed agents who, when and if needed, are set to work against others. His job load remains bearable only because most sting secured agents remain inactive until a need for their special services arises. Then they are given instruction, training, and are directed to the selected target.

Wherever FBI agents have operated for a time, they have no difficulty in activating scores, even hundreds, of law violators as agents who must go and do whatever they are ordered to do, or face the consequences.

A friend of mine, himself an ex-FBI agent, resigned from the FBI years ago because, as he told me, his whole life was made up of informants, dirty information, dirty incidents, and corrupt social types. The association was influencing his personal life and his home life and it wasn't worth either the money or the personal price that he was having to pay. This is one man's opinion.

Many FBI handlers pay a frightful price for doing this work. Over the years most I have seen have developed a hard, sour, cynical outlook on life that carries over into their private lives. The sharp clean cut exterior demanded by the agency often hides pent-up feelings that can explode wildly in diverse things like a private gun battle in Lynchburg in his home with a daughter's suitor, consorting with whores and being recruited as a Soviet spy, or being charged with possible implication in the disappearance of millions of dollars of operating funds secured by The Order in their operations against the establishment.

An attorney friend told me that to help secure sting-agents - petty, frustrating, make-work laws are often encouraged. These laws create thousands of outlaws the instant they are passed. The establishment can then pick from among the new violators and choose those they want to become agents in exchange for non-prosecution. The result is a harvest of white collar sting- operatives - accountants, lawyers, doctors, judges, and government servants.

Conspiracy Sting

The new establishment catchall toy is "conspiracy". Conspiracy is the ultimate state crime. It is a thought crime. You don't have to do anything, you just have to be guilty of thinking it. Thinking will send you to prison. First touted as the cure for mafia crime and drugs, it is commonly used to imprison pro-life pickets and anyone who can't be gotten by any other means.

A preacher may get upset and say that the president and the whole congress ought to be taken out and hanged for giving away taxpayers' money or for allowing the U.S. to invade a foreign country. If the listener in the congregation does not stand immediately to contradict this statement; both he, everyone else in the room as well as the preacher, may be accused of "CONSPIRACY to overthrow the government of the U.S." That was the reason for the Fort Smith treason trials.

If the powers that be want to make something out of the preacher's remarks, they can. Maybe not today, or next month, or even next year. But, when conditions are right the statement on file can be brought out and brushed off. Sting-agents can be activated who will swear to whatever they are told to swear to, and the case is on. The charge - "conspiracy".

Protecting Establishment Agents

To avoid having their informers discovered, the establishment sharply curtailed most lie detector tests. Such tests are now strictly regulated. Voluntary "stress tests" to check employee reliability are now administered, and must be re-administered frequently since loyal employees can be turned into sting induced disloyal ones from one week to the next.

Precautions Against Informers

Palestinians, to protect against a cloud of Israeli controlled Arab informers - simply kill them. The Order, discovering an informer in their midst, is said to have instantly executed him. In both the foregoing cases, informers were looked upon as a death angel.

Short of such extreme measures, which certainly do not seem appropriate at this time, a few words to the great number of ordinary citizens who wish to avoid the unpleasantness of the everyday sting:

Avoid like the plague those with a questionable past. Those who have committed murder, rape, aggravated assault, deal dope, skim money, etc., have more to lose than someone with a parking ticket. They are easier for the establishment to catch and work with. The largest number of establishment sting-caught informants come straight from the gutter and not only would they implicate you in something you aren't even involved in, they can be personally dangerous.

Personal Habits

The personal habits of the recruited violent criminal are often as repulsive as his crimes. Particularly, beware foul smelling, cursing, drinking, converts to God and country.

Beware those who suddenly appear from nowhere and decide that YOU are his ideal. With a finger on the tape recorder in his pocket he will record your answer to questions he has been instructed to ask so that they may be later spliced into a tale that even your wife would not recognize - but a cherry picked grand jury might. That same grand-jury would certainly believe a story of a plot to overthrow the government when presented with evidence of an arsenal that illegally arrived through the mails.

The Christian is trained to accept what may be a ring of gold from among the flotsam and jetsam of humanity. Today, that pearl may have an implanted detonating device. Beware not only the gold ring in the pig's snout, but beware ANYONE who does not have your standards.

All the infiltrators that I have learned about have a simple plausible story which could not be investigated for one reason or another. Past activities often were said to have taken place in a distant state.

Anti-sting activities can begin by noticing idle people around with no visible source of income and no visible reason for existence. Every county has one or more. They are often either handlers or just permanent establishment watchers.

Among those with whom you are thrown in contact, notice little things, what one eats, drinks, if they wash their hands. The types to avoid are often incredibly grasping and greedy, even while presenting an ivy-league front. To them, tithing is incomprehensible. If they say they tithe - watch what the tithe goes for. In manner, most can't help but be agreeable. They don't really know enough to disagree.

Most avoid deep conversations that could blow their cover. When the knowledgeable person arrives - the sting has pressing things to do elsewhere.

His prominently displayed Bible may carry the price tag and have the pages stuck together. He may not enjoy what he is doing, but it is either that or jail for him. He is deathly afraid of his handler sending him to the gang rapes and beatings of daily prison life.

The Establishment's Slave Army

The establishment has it all and they spend enormous sums to keep it. They intend to keep it. They have recruited a vast army of unwilling slaves - victims of past sting operations.

Watch the newly arrived who hangs on your every word and asks little beyond worshipping at your feet. Be a bit suspicious. Most people aren't that good, that smart, or that wise. What can this person get from you that he can't get on his own with a little study?

If he asks you to mail a package for him - be fairly certain that on the way to the post office you will be stopped, and guess what will be in the package? Guess what the establishment newspaper will say about the whole thing? Who will believe you after the establishment newspaper is through with the incident? This may then be your turn to be offered some sort of "arrangement".

Notice how certain great conservatives in the past have suddenly given up the fight, or switched sides on major issues. Were they convinced that the other side had the right answer? Were they just tired of fighting, just burned out? Maybe. Perhaps they were stung. It is always interesting when one of our red hot conservative politicians, papers, or organizations suddenly cools for no apparent reason and no longer puts up the good fight.

The Plan - The Solution

In the days ahead the establishment will doubtless do what works elsewhere - try to sting half of the population and get them to inform on the other half.

The Communist world has gone through it - it is now our turn. If you set your standards where they should be, and are willing to die for them, make sure your acquaintances feel the same. If they do, you should have little to worry about.

Few things in this world are free - least of all freedom!

EISENHOWER: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I am incensed over the possibility that the Dulles International Airport might be renamed after Eisenhower. I for one remember Ike's relentless and unnecessary destruction of French cities before D-Day 1944, his violation of the Geneva Convention and murder of war prisoners. He was not a gentleman. We don't need his kind remembered!" W. H. - DC

BOTH SIDES: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: How can the lender make money when he lends to both the victor and the conquered? The conquered must default because he can't pay and the lender loses his money." G. W. - Washington

ED: You miss the point. Money is not important to the one who owns the money machine. More money can always be lent into existence. Usury is the machine, the master - not wealth. Land, gold, cars, houses, children. They may be considered only wealth. Money can be borrowed into existence using this wealth as collateral. The usury contract of 10 for 11 will in time ensure that everything the borrower has will belong to the lender. It may take five years, ten, fifty, or 100 years.

In a war where both sides borrow from the same usurer at interest - both are slaves to the lender. The vanquished suffers today - the victor tomorrow. The trap is time - time and compound interest. Using the usury contract - all wealth returns to the lender. Beware the usurer.

EURO: "Dear Sir: What about the European Economic Community? Do you think Euro-currency will replace the dollar as the world reserve currency? I use your newsletter quite often as a basis for my Sunday School lesson." G. A. - California

ED: Usury, the forbidden system, in time causes money to gravitate to a single place. Whoever holds most of the world's IOUs also rules the world. "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7 No one knows who the ultimate lender is and can only guess at his strategy. He might be a drunk. He might have syphilis, gonorrhea, or/and have AIDS dementia and be out of his mind. It's not something we are permitted to vote on. If the ruler goes really nuts and decides to destroy the U.S., he could use the world's armies against us. He could send America's armies into a far desert, and then send the world's hordes against a defenseless America. He could drive the U.S. dollar value down to 1¢ causing depression and starvation, and then bring the world's armies here.

Would he remove the dollar as backing for Europe and Asia first to protect that part of his empire? Possibly. His hirelings undoubtedly know a trick that we don't. Right now his system works perfectly - for him. "If it aint broke, don't fix it." As for his being crazy? - yes! I really believe that logically there is an ultimate usurer who is the world's ruler, and if lack of conscience and concern for the suffering he causes is the same thing as "crazy", yes, I believe he is crazy.

BRUCE PIERCE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins; Just finished Vigilantes Of Christendom. Well done! In your next printing I would appreciate it if you would change 'Bruce Pierce was persuaded to testify against himself...' to; 'Because the FBI threatened to charge and incarcerate my wife and put my three children in foster homes I was left with no choice but to make a statement against myself.' The use of the word 'persuaded' does not represent what transpired. When a man's family is threatened he feels he has no choice. And, 'testify' carries the stigma that I got on a stand in court which I never did. This is a sensitive subject with me. A matter of honor." Bruce C. Chapter 195

U.S. INSTALLS PUPPET RULERS

The WSJ of August 16, 1990 reminds us that the CIA in 1963 gave full backing to the Baath Party in Iraq and installed Saddam Hussein as the 'good dictator'. The CIA also went to great expense to maintain the exiled Ayatollah Khomeini in Paris for years while the CIA installed Shah ruled Iran.

A U.S. encouraged revolt in Iran against the CIA's own Shah forced him to flee to the U.S. where he died of cancer. The CIA then dispatched one of its own Air America planes to fly the Ayatollah from Paris to Iran to take power. Once installed, the Ayatolla dutifully attacked the U.S. and became the U.S. media's "bad man".

Iran's U.S. installed Ayatollah then fought the U.S. installed Hussein of Iraq for 8 long bloody years with Iraq using Soviet equipment, and Iran using up the Shah's massive stockpile of American equipment, which was continuously maintained through the conflict with spare parts surreptitiously shipped by Reagan's administration to Iran via Israel while all the time all parties concerned stoutly maintained that they hated each other.

The president of the Philippines, the U.S. backed Marcos, was persuaded to leave on a U.S. Air Force plane following a contested election in which the U.S. media supported his opponent, Mrs. Aquino. He was confined to Hawaii, U.S. territory, where he too, died of cancer. His widow was hassled in court and then released with charges dropped and wealth intact. Collusion rumors abound.

Think about it. Israel, who once launched a "preventive strike" against Syria's nuclear reactor, has long been after the U.S. to fight their Arab enemies for them. Their amen-corner in the U.S. echoes this desire. To comply, the U.S.'s "good guy" Hussein, the man who can't breathe unless told to, becomes "mad man" Hussein (that's what the media actually calls him) because he invaded Kuwait. In righteous indignation over this despicable act, good guy overnight becomes bad guy, and the U.S. sends a half a million man army to occupy oil-rich Saudi Arabia to confront the sworn enemy of the Israelis. All this without a single American soldier having been killed in battle. The stated reason? To "protect" the world's largest source of oil from "Mad Man Huessin."

All agree that the nation which controls the world's oil supply rules the world. What a coincidence it is that America, the nation which has aided in establishing every communist regime in the world, and has participated in installing in office almost every Arab leader - now surprisingly finds herself in control of the world's oil.

Viewing the situation, The Virginia Taxpayers Association commented, "Regarding war with Iraq ... a House Banking Committee hearing on Oct 16 confirmed that 3 billion of U.S. government money was laundered through the Italian Banca Nazionale Del Lavoro in Atlanta in the 1980s which actually paid for the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait. The fact that no federal or state bank regulators acted to stop these massive unauthorized loans to Iraq, at a time when these same regulators were zealous in curtailing legitimate loans to the U.S. corporations and real estate borrowers, has to be suspicious. ...

"On July 25, only a week before the invasion, U.S. Ambassador April Glaspie told Saddam Hussein that 'the U.S. took no official position on Iraq's border dispute with Kuwait. ... two days before the invasion, Assistant Secretary of State John Kelly in congressional testimony confirmed the message to Saddam. ... When asked ... if the U.S. would come to Kuwait's defense if it were attacked, Kelly replied; "We have no defense treaty relationship with any (Persian) Gulf country.'"¹

If one were a cynic and kept track of what is going on, the Mid- East appears to be a staged soap opera. The cast hired by the same casting company which also engaged the principal players in the Philippine comedy and also the South African tragedy. This last named show needed to have some differences resolved between the principal actors before returning to its Broadway run. The Black prima-donnas were using the spotlight to air their internal family squabble, a no-no in show biz.

All the while, the TV commentator stands on the edge of the stage just as the readers did in the old days to read the plot so the world audience will have some notion of what to make of it all.

Kuwait is playing now, but it isn't the only show in town. It does, if properly managed, give promise of eventually taking in one of the biggest gates since WW II. It may even end up like the profitable long drawn out eight year Iraq-Iranian affair to add realism while at the same time helping the world's economies borrow money into existence to keep things going. Somebody's got to do it. Properly done, the run could last a long long time like the Vietnam show, with offensives going in circles, loudspeaker warning of attacks to come, strategic targets placed off-bounds, and the Iraqis somehow still getting enough war material to look believable and keep up their end of the thing. After all, according to Keynes, war borrowing is the best ingredient for business.

The Mid-East show has a darker side. A serious side. We remember that one of the Christian crusades launched against Islam to secure the Holy Land was strangely mis-directed into a wasteland in the Mid-East where the entire army, without water and resupply, died almost to a man. That army was almost as large as our army now in Arabia. It's not like we haven't had it done to us before.

Think! If we wanted to invade the USSR we would most certainly feign weakness, disorder, and collapse. If the Soviets were stupid enough to believe it, we would then persuade them to move their army thousands of miles away from Europe and the USSR to clear the way for an invading American army. On the other hand, if they wanted to invade the U.S., what more could they want than what they've got? They have at least as much sense, and many more sympathizers in our government to help them do it.

DIXIE NATIONALIST: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I belong to the Southern Nationalist Party.² What Dixie needs is her own nation." B. D. - Georgia

ED: As time goes on I believe you will find that the "Dixie" you seek is not a place, it is where your people are. Dixie was a dream that God would not allow. God blessed her - farms handed down for generations, chivalrous brave men and beautiful women, churches and a Godfearing people.

But she tolerated evil in her midst:

1) Strangers in the land:³

2) Strangers who ruled over her in the very highest echelons of government,⁴

3) Land monopolies - ten farms were combined into 1,000 acre plantations,⁵

4) Wealthy priests and wealthy churches,⁶

6) The usury system was tolerated.⁸

7) Taxation of her own people,⁹ was tolerated, and,

8) "False witnesses" of the media were tolerated, who told lies and untruths to encourage war with their own.¹⁰

If the South had won the war she would have institutionalized these offenses against God and would have taken them into God's Promised Land to foul the nest. The people must be cleansed - first! They wander in the wilderness waiting to be cleansed for as long as it takes, THEN, they may enter into the Promised Land. To those whom much is given much is required. Until God's people learn to obey.¹¹

Choosing to sacrifice rather than obey - she threw the carcasses of her sons and husbands on the altar of "honor". Look at the pictures of the heaps of slain at Gettysburg and Cold Harbor. The 3,000 graves at Lynchburg, 20,000 at Richmond, 30,000 at Petersburg. Look at Arlington! Look at Chateau Thierry and Iwo Jima. Look at Stalingrad! See? The sacrifice. Next to obedience our own bodies are all we have - and it isn't good enough. These sacrifices will stop only when we, the custodians of the Law, obey, and stop the violations which is war against God!

THEY know! This is why "The enemy is eager to destroy all that call upon the Lord. For he knoweth that upon the

7 "Let him (the king) not have ...abundance of riches ...he may grow too proud to submit to the Laws ...and if he affect any such things let him be restrained, lest he become so potent that his state become inconsistent with your welfare." Antiquities 4:8:17

8 "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall not live." Ezek 18:13

day that Israel shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end." Book of Dan 2:16-17.

Dixie, that promised land, remains a dream forever across the river under the shade of the trees. Like Virginia, it is a state of mind. Your enemy seen before your eyes is not the Yankee. His enemy was never Johnny Reb. The Yankee didn't win the war. He was tricked into helping to push you off your land, and now he too has been pushed from his. Both have been punished for not obeying the Law. The Rebel the more because more had been given to him and more was expected of him. With eyes wide open we both willingly stacked our own bodies and the bodies of our precious sons on the carcasses of our idols and raised not one finger to obey God.¹² God rejected our sacrifice. Obedience, not sacrifice, is the thing required. God punished our toleration of evil.¹³

No longer is God fooling around. To whom much is given -.

 "Dear Mr. Hoskins: How reliable is the Gospel of Philip?" R. D. - Missouri

ED: Pass everything through the filter of the Law. If it goes through, keep it. If it doesn't, remember, many of these old manuscripts have been copied and re-copied scores of times. A future discovery of another manuscript of the same writing may clarify it. In the meantime, eat the meat and spit out the bones. God and his Law never change. Count on that.

ASIA: "Dear Dick: American-Asian trade has surpassed American- European trade. Will Asians take over world leadership in the next century?" M. E. - California

ED: Things aren't as they seem. Japan lost WW II. Her banks and most of her large industry were compromised. Japan is a horse driven by world usury banking. Asiatics are by breeding oftentimes smart, but lawless. They don't trust each other or anyone else, which is why their society requires consensus on everything. It works for them, but is oppressive and stultifying. Their technological advances will continue as long as Christianity is suppressed¹⁴ to permit Western concepts to be fed to them by world finance. When the influx stop - they will again freeze in time - locked at each other's throats. It all depends on WHEN the teachings of Christ will be freed from those who are tax-exempted to suppress them. The war is here - not there. The real enemy is of our own household who adulterates the Law for a buck, a hireling that looks like you - not someone who wears a beanie or has slant eyes. If the Law were loosed the stranger wouldn't be here - which is the reason for the big push to suppress it.

14 (1) "If thou has stricken thy hand with a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien), thou art snared." Pr. 6:1 (2) "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21

IRAQI WAR: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: This war may become a zinger. Today I spoke to a reservist who is being called up in mid-January 1991! The commanding general is a black, forty-seven percent of the force is Black, and 10% is female. I'd like to see the bookies' odds before betting on this one." S. R. - New York

COLUMNIST: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: I have observed the metamorphosis of a major conservative columnist with sincere disappointment. I have considered his fickleness a matter of having for gain yielded his convictions. Since reading your "Slave Army" I really wonder if he may have been more strongly coerced than with mere money?" VC: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Thank you for a copy of your book. I hope that my grandson will one day read it and come to understand the forces that have kept us apart." Richard Scutari

PUBLIC SCHOOLS: Dear Mr. Hoskins: There is an ongoing unreported race war in the Atlanta public schools. Blacks, Hispanics, and Orientals vs. Whites. Four white students are believed to have been killed and the schools were closed for one day to permit a cooling period. Police patrol every school." H. R. - Georgia

ED: Lynchburg public schools this past month has had its first rape and the second discharge of firearms. The carrying of weapons by Blacks is reported to be widespread. It's becoming like the days after the War Between The States.

Those who did the killings of German military and civilians in Poland, Czechoslovakia, and Yugoslavia in the period of 1944-47 will be found, some of their identities are already known ... The Germans are finding ever new mass graves in forests of former "East Germany"; once again, some of the murderers are known. Little wonder that 'Marcus Mischa Wolf', E. Germany's former spy chief ... felt racially persecuted, and left for the Soviet Union after the collapse of the E. German Communist State. So much corruption is being revealed that, according to Russian contacts of mine, plane load after plane load of 'refugees' are fleeing from Russia in the dead of night because they fear a pogrom of unprecedented proportions not only in Russia but all over E. Europe once the Soviet Empire collapses into anarchy and chaos. ... I saw some Soviet convoys in the East and counted the 'mongolians' amongst them, and then I saw the American army convoys on the Autobahns in W. Germany, ... and I counted the racial mix there! I was astonished how white the Soviet troops were as compared to the US forces. ... According to one TV report I saw in Europe, the much-vaunted, computer-operated US main battle tank breaks down an average of every 12 minutes in exercises in Saudi Arabia, so I would not plan any victory parades just yet. What a world we live in!" Ernst Zundel Report, Oct 17, 1990, 206 Carlton St, Toronto, ONT, Canada
